Ilaa Nabiyyin

1. To a Prophet, a Messenger, who came to us with guidance, since he was guided by a Book he brought, and guided (us),

2. the most lasting greetings, without deceit or turbidity, from the Servant (al-Khadīm) who turns to him as to a refuge.

3. To his illustrious Family and to all the Companions, from me, a greeting that makes security and ease endure.

4. O my master, O Messenger of Allah, O my hope, may He bless you Who has driven away whoever rebelled.

5. O Select One, O leader of all the messengers together, upon you the greeting of Him Who through you has purified the heart.

6. May He bless you, with a greeting beyond number, Who was never begotten and has not begotten (Qurʾān 112:3).

7 May an Everlasting One (Al-Bāqī) Who has no partner bless you and grant you peace, together with the Family, O you who drove falsehood away.

8 May an Everlasting One Who knows no exhaustion bless you and grant you peace, together with the Companions, O you who brought right conduct near.

9 O people of Medina, from me, for ever, to you the most lasting greeting, which makes heart and body wholesome.

10 May you ever remain in serenity and abundance; may Allah shield you, until the Gardens, from whoever persists (in rebellion).

11 You have won that the son of ʿAbd Allāh is your neighbour, and that you are around him: so praise the Self-Sufficient (Aṣ-Ṣamad).

12 May He bless him Who ever repels the enemies toward others than whoever turns to him, for ever, as to a refuge.

13 May a service of my life, accepted from me, gladden him, by the grace of Him Who through him bestowed (guidance) and guided.
