PARTIE 1

Bismil Laahi Ikfini 1

1. In the Name of God: spare me all turbidity, O Allah; through it make pure for me abiding in You, O Allah.

2. O He to Whom the Command belongs, O He Who has no partner: expand, make master and set (me) free in You, O Allah.

3. I have turned to You today, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), hoping for my success in what I have willed in Your world, O Allah.

4. You are the Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), by Whose mercy I hope to meet no harm from You, O Allah.

5. Make my right hand and my heart masters of what I ask, O my King (Al-Malik), without reckoning, by generosity from You, O Allah.

6. You have sanctified my secret, O Most Holy (Al-Quddūs), well pleased with me; and with You I am well pleased forever, O Allah.

7 You are the Peace (As-Salām), Who have kept my whole being safe from the faults of my soul, folding them (away) from You, O Allah.

8 O Giver of faith (Al-Mu'min), spare my person harm and turbidity, and grant me safety in the two Abodes, O Allah.

9 And as Guardian (Al-Muhaymin) bear witness for me to Your purchase of what I sold in secret, (in exchange) for the Gardens (Qur'ān 9:111), O Allah.

10 You are the Mighty (Al-'Azīz), by Whose might I seek a might that makes honour everlasting for me: Allah!

11 You have compelled for me — You are the Compeller (Al-Jabbār) — without encounter, all the enemies, by what You chose for me, O Allah.

12 You have spared me every proud one, without toil; O Supreme in Greatness (Al-Mutakabbir), You have tamed them all, O Allah.

13 O Creator (Al-Khāliq) of creation, create for me what I wish, forever, with gladness, purity and good pleasure, O Allah.

14 O Maker (Al-Bāri’) of creation, lead benefit to me without harm, and lead to me the reward for the Gardens, O Allah.

15 You are the Fashioner (Al-Muṣawwir): make glad tidings everlasting for the Prophet, and fashion (good) for me without guile, O Allah.

16 You have forgiven me every sin I committed: bear witness for me to my gratitude, O Forgiver (Al-Ghaffār), O Allah.

17 You have subdued my enemies for me, Lord, without cause on my part: I have praised You, O Subduer (Al-Qahhār), O Allah.

18 You have given me from Yourself a request (granted) that surpassed my asking: so to You is my gratitude, O Bestower (Al-Wahhāb), O Allah.

19 You have led to me the prices (the rewards) of the deep sea, O He to Whom my life (belongs), and You have led sustenance to me, O Provider (Ar-Razzāq), O Allah.

20 You have opened for me every door You had opened for Your saints, O Opener (Al-Fattāḥ), O Allah.

21 You have taught me the unseen until I became awakened: You are the All-Knowing (Al-ʿAlīm) Who have taught, O Allah.

22 You have withheld, O Withholder (Al-Qābiḍ), the evils, and they turned toward another direction than mine, like the turbid things, O Allah.

23 You have expanded, O Expander (Al-Bāsiṭ), hopes for me with good pleasure: so accept my intimacy in the two Abodes, O Allah.

24 You have abased, O Abaser (Al-Khāfiḍ), the enemies for me, and they went off toward another direction than mine, by an abasing from You, O Allah.

25 You have raised, O Exalter (Ar-Rāfiʿ), my rank in the two Abodes, without abasement, by grace from You, O Allah.

26 You are the Bestower of honour (Al-Muʿizz), to Whose might I have clung, (I) an honoured friend and beloved in You, O Allah.

27 You are the Humiliator (Al-Mudhill), before Whose might mankind, the jinn and Satan have been humbled, O Allah.

28 You are the All-Hearing (As-Samīʿ), with Whom I have conversed intimately for a long time, and with joys You have been lavish to me, O Allah.

29 You are the All-Seeing (Al-Baṣīr), Who has led to me all that You chose for me, in this world and the next, from You, O Allah.

30 You have decreed, O Everlasting Judge (Al-Ḥakam), that I be a possessor of success, through what is hidden of Your glad tidings, O Allah.

31 You have dragged away, O Just (Al-ʿAdl), my enemies, without encounter or harm, and You have been for me, O Allah.

32 You are the Subtle (Al-Laṭīf), Who have led to me forever a wondrous subtle kindness that increases reflection, O Allah.

33 You are the All-Aware (Al-Khabīr), Whose knowledge I have seen with my eyes, and You have led to me from You the knowledge of the unseen, O Allah.

34 You are the Forbearing (Al-Ḥalīm), Who have removed all those You did not approve for me, toward others, forever, O Allah.

35 You are the Magnificent (Al-ʿAẓīm), Whose greatness has appeared; You have led to me an immense favour from You, O Allah.

36 You are the All-Forgiving (Al-Ghafūr), Who have led to me a forgiveness that effaced my faults: I am well pleased with You, O Allah.

37 You are the Appreciative (Ash-Shakūr), with Whom my whole being is good pleasure, and for me You have appreciated all the striving, O Allah.

38 You are the Most High (Al-ʿAlī), Who have raised me forever without guile, and for me You have made (good) lawful, O Allah.

39 You are the Great (Al-Kabīr), Whose greatness has appeared; You have led to me from You a great reward, O Allah.

40 You are the Preserver (Al-Ḥafīẓ), Who have turned forever toward others than me the enemies and harm, O Allah.

41 You are the Sustainer (Al-Muqīt), Who have made ease everlasting for me, without reckoning, until the Gardens, O Allah.

42 You are the Sufficient Reckoner (Al-Ḥasīb), with Whom I have been content, (sheltered) from enemies, harm and toil, O Allah.

43 You are the Majestic (Al-Jalīl), Whose majesty has driven the enemies toward others than us, in the two Abodes, O Allah.

44 You are the Generous (Al-Karīm), Who have led generosity to me in this world and the next, with glad tidings, O Allah.

45 You are the Watchful (Ar-Raqīb), Whose guarding of my whole being, from all that is not good pleasure, has appeared, O Allah.

46 You are the Responsive (Al-Mujīb), through Whom without toil an answer from You has yielded (to me), for me, in what You chose for me, O Allah.

47 And truly You are the All-Embracing (Al-Wāsi‘), the Everlasting, and for me, forever, You have widened a breadth with emancipation (from the Fire), O Allah.

48 You are the Wise (Al-Ḥakīm), Who have made me fit for other than what grieved me, and You have effaced the evil, O Allah.

49 You are the Loving (Al-Wadūd), Whose love has yielded to me forever with good pleasure and nearness, O Allah.

50 You are the Glorious (Al-Majīd), Whose glory has appeared, and You have led to me from You a glory that surpasses (all), O Allah.

51 And truly You are the Resurrector (Al-Bā'ith), Who makes endure without harm: You have spared me all turbidity, O Allah.

52 You are the Witness (Ash-Shahīd), Whose testimony has yielded to me of Your purchase from me of that (which I sold), O Allah.

53 O Truth (Al-Ḥaqq), bear witness for me with truth, and efface all that You have not approved for me, absolutely, by grace, O Allah.

54 You are the Trustee (Al-Wakīl), with Whom I have been content in warding off (evil) and drawing (good), O Lord of creation, O Allah.

PARTIE 2

Bismil Laahi Ikfini 2

55 You are the Strong (Al-Qawī), Who have strengthened me with good pleasure, in secret and in the open, O Lord of the Command, O Allah.

56 You are the Firm (Al-Matīn), Who have been for me with aspirations, and You do not turn toward me what is hateful, O Allah.

57 You are the Protector (Al-Walī), in exchange for Whom I seek no substitute, and You have been for me with safety, O Allah.

58 You are the Praiseworthy (Al-Ḥamīd), Who have turned graces toward me, without delusion and without guile, O Allah.

59 O Reckoner (Al-Muḥṣī) of creation and of all things together, You have spared me the harm of what You have numbered, O Allah.

60 O Originator (Al-Mubdi') of creation, O You Who do not turn toward me what I do not love: I am well pleased with You, O Allah.

61 O Restorer (Al-Muʿīd), You have led to me out of generosity the most praiseworthy of returns, in every month and day, in You, O Allah.

62 O Giver of life (Al-Muḥyī), with the best of lives You have been lavish to me forever: so to You is my gratitude, with purity of life, O Allah.

63 O Giver of death (Al-Mumīt), You have driven my death toward the enemies, and toward them You have driven my adversities, in the two Abodes, O Allah.

64 O Living (Al-Ḥayy), my praise and my gratitude, together with my contentment, accept them from me without displeasure on Your part, O Allah.

65 O Self-Subsisting (Al-Qayyūm), You have led to me what I sought, without my earning, until the Gardens, O Allah.

66 You have brought to me, O Finder (Al-Wājid), the prices without toil: Yours is the Existence that has become manifest to me, O Allah.

67 O Noble (Al-Mājid), make me exalted in the two Abodes, without pride or vanity, Lord, O Allah.

68 O One (Al-Wāḥid), make me singular in the two Abodes, with aspirations, through a precious gift from You, O Allah.

69 To You (goes) my refuge, in what has been chosen for me, O my Self-Sufficient (Aṣ-Ṣamad), as gladness for all those You have loved, O Allah.

70 You have cast down, O Able (Al-Qādir), the forsaken one, driven off toward others than us: to You be praise, O Allah.

71 You have granted me the Pilgrimage by folding (of the earth) — You are the All-Powerful — with nearness (to the Prophet) and the visit in You, O Allah.

72 You are the Expediter (Al-Muqaddim): bring me forward here and tomorrow before many of the elect, O Allah.

73 You are the Delayer (Al-Mu'akhkhir): You have removed the enemies, and they went off toward others than us, with disgrace, O Allah.

74 And truly You are the First (Al-Awwal): place me here and tomorrow among the forerunners, by grace from You, O Allah.

75 O Last (Al-Ākhir), make me possessed of ranks in the two Abodes, and purify my life until the Gardens, O Allah.

76 O Manifest (Aẓ-Ẓāhir), grant me what I hope for, well pleased with me, and make me manifest the Qur'ān, O Allah.

77 O Hidden (Al-Bāṭin), grant me the secrets, O Possessor of favours, and make my heart the vessel of remembrance, O Allah.

78 Grant me, by Your grace, O Governor (Al-Wālī), my union with the Best of creatures and with those You have befriended, O Allah.

79 And truly You are the Supremely Exalted (Al-Muta'ālī): drive Your enemies, all together, toward other than the aim of harming me, forever, O Allah.

80 Expand, make master and set free, without corruption, and answer for me my supplication, O Beneficent (Al-Barr), O Allah.

81 You have turned to me (in forgiveness), effaced the sin entirely, purified my whole being, O Accepter of repentance (At-Tawwāb), O Allah.

82 You are the One Who takes vengeance (Al-Muntaqim) on the enemies of Islam, and for me You have avenged with what You chose for me, O Allah.

83 You are the Pardoner (Al-ʿAfuww), Who have pardoned me without leaving (any) fault: You have guided (my) whole (being), O Allah.

84 You are the Most Kind (Ar-Raʾūf), Whose kindness I have seen with my eyes, and You do not turn the enemies toward me, O Allah.

85 O King of Sovereignty (Mālik al-Mulk), for me You have widened, without anguish, in the Kingdom and the heavenly Dominion, forever, O Allah.

86 O Possessor of Majesty and Possessor of Generosity, grant me what You have chosen for me, in this world and the next, from You, O Allah.

87 Lead to me, O Equitable (Al-Muqsiṭ), what is sought, so that I be seen (as Your) intimate friend and beloved, with good pleasure, O Allah.

88 O Gatherer (Al-Jāmiʿ), gather my aims for me, well pleased with me, through Your being for me in the gathering, O Allah.

89 You are the Rich (Al-Ghanī), to Whom no aim pertains: grant me what I need, O Allah.

90 You have enriched me — You are the Enricher (Al-Mughnī) — without cause: so forever be for me with grace, O Allah.

91 You have given me — You are the Giver (Al-Muʿṭī) — the aspirations of the noble; You have spared me all the enemies, O Allah.

92 You have prevented, O Preventer (Al-Māniʿ), the evils from my side, and You do not turn toward me what grieves, O Allah.

93 You have prevented, O Distresser (Aḍ-Ḍārr), harm from me forever, and You do not turn harming toward me, O Allah.

94 You have led to me in everything the benefit of a Generous One, O Benefactor (An-Nāfiʿ) of those who have faith, O Allah.

95 You have illumined, O Light (An-Nūr), my whole being, pure, forever; You have spared me the darkness of things, O Allah.

96 You have led to me from You, O Guide (Al-Hādī), the guidance of those who were companions of the Chosen, the Elect, O Allah.

97 You are the Wondrous Originator (Al-Badīʿ), Whose wonders have appeared: You have led wonders to me with reward, O Allah.

98 Purify my life for me, O Everlasting (Al-Bāqī), with the best good pleasure, and make me endure through the Book of Allah, O Allah.

99 You have led to me all the favours You chose for me, as an inheritance, O Inheritor (Al-Wārith) of the dead, O Allah.

100 You are the Guide to the Right Path (Ar-Rashīd), Who have led to me right guidance in everything, with glad tidings, O Allah.

101 You are the Patient (Aṣ-Ṣabūr), Who have turned toward me a price (of reward), and You have taken away what refuses it, O Allah.
