نُورُ الدَّارَيْنِ

Nuuru Daarayni

30 PARTIES · 1517 BAYITS

Cheikh Ahmadou Bamba
Khadimou Rassoul · Serigne Touba

KIRAAM

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَٰنِ الرَّحِيمِ

نُورُ الدَّارَيْنِ

Nuuru Daarayni

الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي يُصَلِّي

✦ ✦ ✦

Œuvre de Cheikh Ahmadou Bamba Khadimou Rassoul

30 parties · 1517 bayits · mètre Rajas

English translation only

Édition Kiraam · Textes issus du « Khassida Dataset » de Daour (github.com/DaurDiop/khassida_dataset, licence MIT).
Diffusion libre et gratuite. Toute erreur de saisie peut être signalée à Kiraam.

PARTIE 1

Nuuru Daarayni 1

1 Praise be to Allah, Who blesses the chosen Prophet, the one who prays,

2 — may Allah bless him and grant him peace, in the Family, the Companions and whoever befriends him —

3 and has also commanded the angels to bless him, increasing thereby his loftiness;

4 then to us He directed the address (Qur'ān 33:56), out of generosity, and made souls good.

5 So I rose, saying, in obedience to the command of a Beautiful One exalted above all likeness:

6 "O You Who command that we bless our Prophet Muḥammad, the gate of the heights,

7 to You (go) from me glad tidings presented in the service of him whom the Eternal has set foremost.

8 O Allah, bless forever and grant peace upon Your Prophet, the lamp of the learned,

9 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

10 as many as the things known to our Lord, the All-Knowing, O You Who through him have granted me the best sciences.

11 And bless, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), and grant peace upon him whose precedence is well known,

12 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

13 He is the greatest sign of God, and it is he who drove compulsion toward others than me.

14 And bless, O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), and grant peace upon Your renowned Prophet, the banner,

15 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

16 O You Who lead to whoever blesses him once ten (blessings), that illumine his piety,

17 and to me You convey the glad tidings of the Decree, removing turbidity toward a direction other than mine.

18 O Allah, O All-Merciful, O Most Merciful, O You Who have been named "Beautiful" (Al-Jamīl) and "Benefiter" (An-Nāfiʿ),

19 bless with peace, without end, on my behalf, the Prophet possessed of splendour,

20 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

21 O You Who convey to whoever (blesses) ten times a hundred (blessings), by his standing, O You Who have guarded from evil deeds,

22 (bless) a Prophet who used to efface evil with good, and wake the blessed one from slumber.

23 How excellent an Intercessor! Whoever has blessed him two hundred times has obtained a thousand (blessings) surpassing (all) hosts.

24 He is the one whom He Who created him sent to His creatures with mercy and compassion.

25 He is the one who, for whoever has blessed him a thousand times, (leads) the wishes, and he is found in the Gardens.

26 O Allah, bless forever and grant peace upon Your Prophet, the Messenger, the ladder,

27 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

28 O You Who by his standing have accepted my pen and spared me illness and pain,

29 and through him have granted me, in my customs, what is hidden from the greatest of masters,

30 and through him have bestowed on me the Book, without adversity or reproach,

31 bless, O All-Merciful, perpetually, our master Muḥammad, O You Who are exalted.

32 O You Whose precious Book has captivated (hearts) for me, and for me has overcome all Your enemies,

33 and in my recitation You have folded for me all good things, at my passing and in the abodes,

34 and (bless) his Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome, O You Who establish the states.

35 And bless, O Most Merciful, and grant peace upon him who is the desire of the saints and the learned,

36 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

37 O You Who have made my growing blessings fold up for me the distance of the path,

38 and for me have made my praises like the striving of every striver You have guided, possessed of zeal,

39 and for me have made all the months witnesses, together with purity.

40 O Allah, O All-Merciful, O Most Merciful, O You Who have been named "Generous" (Al-Karīm) and "Benefiter" (An-Nāfiʿ),

41 bless with a blessing that makes glad tidings everlasting, with Your peace, the best of mankind,

42 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

43 And lead today to Gabriel, the Trustworthy, from me, glad tidings that drive reproach

44 toward others than me, perpetually; and to all Your noble angels: truly You are the All-Hearing.

45 And lead glad tidings that last forever, from me, to the Companions, O You Who are worshipped.

46 And reward the noble people of Badr, on my behalf, with good; lead my aim to me.

47 And reward on my behalf the Prophets and the Messengers with good that perpetuates sugar and honey.

48 And have mercy on the saints, the learned and the believers, and spare them whoever has done wrong.

49 And make Your Book with me wherever I am, O Bestower Who has granted me "Be!" and it is.

50 O Allah, bless and grant peace at every moment upon Your Beloved, chief of the righteous,

51 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

PARTIE 2

Nuuru Daarayni 2

52 And make my writing, from this day, above an accepted prayer and fast.

53 And unveil through my writing what has been hidden of the sciences: You are the All-Aware, the Great and the All-Knowing.

54 And make me free, through You and the accepted Intercessor, of every wrongdoer and every cannon.

55 And make my compositions like a guide, and heal my body and guide my heart.

56 You have taken what I sold of myself at the (agreed) price, without revocation; You have made time good for me.

57 To You, without complaint, from me, gratitude, O You Who granted me my desire, O Appreciative (Ash-Shakūr).

58 And bless, O All-Merciful, and grant peace upon him through whom You loosed my pain,

59 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

60 And make clear for me my waking and my sleep, and drive toward others than me what draws reproach.

61 And make my movements and stillnesses, for You, more beloved than all good deeds,

62 without calamity and without turbidity, O Lord of creation, of the Decree and of Destiny.

63 And bless, O Most Merciful, with peace, him whom You sent possessed of teaching,

64 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

65 And bear witness for me, today and after today, to every good, and protect me from reproach.

66 And on my behalf reward the Chosen with a good that surpasses (all), in the present and the final outcome, O best Companion.

67 And on my behalf reward the people of Badr, perpetually, with abundant good; and make my writing praiseworthy.

68 And on my behalf reward his Family and his Companions with abundant good, and illumine his road through me.

69 And on my behalf reward Your noble hosts with abundant good: You have led my aim to me.

70 And on my behalf reward the Prophets and the Messengers with abundant good, and increase the most perfect through me.

71 And on my behalf reward my parents and all whom my joy has gladdened, with good things, O All-Hearing.

72 And have mercy on all the saints and the community, and lift the distress that has befallen (them).

73 And occupy Your enemies with other than what corrupts the way of Your Prophet, and repel those who have envied.

74 And occupy Your enemies with Your enemies, and turn their hearts from harming whoever knows You.

75 And turn the hearts of the idolaters to other than harming those who have done good, all alike.

76 And occupy Your servants in doing what is commanded, not in breaking into the forbidden, O Possessor of Command.

77 And bless, O Allah, with a blessing that sends what grieves us toward others than us, and it goes,

78 with a peace that draws gladness to us and brings evils to others than our person,

79 upon Your Prophet and Your servant, the Messenger, who led to me from You, Lord, the best of requests.

80 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

81 And make, by his mighty standing with You, my writing a lasting gladness for Your hosts.

82 And make my writing lasting glad tidings for the Chosen, whose servant I have become.

83 And make through him my writing gladnesses forever, for all the angels, O You Who are worshipped.

84 And make my writing with You lasting good (works) (Qur'ān 18:46), never ceasing to grow.

85 And turn away through it the accursed, the enemies and illness toward others than me, forever.

86 And draw to me through it, forever, wherever I am, without harm or heartache: "Be!" and it is.

87 And bless, O All-Merciful, perpetually, him through whom You led the heights to whoever rose high,

88 our master Muḥammad, and grant peace, to the Family and the Companions; and teach my heart.

89 O You Who through him have made my heart and my hand the two vessels of Your Book, and so they became,

90 and through my life You drive fear and shame toward a direction other than mine, forever,

91 and You have bestowed on me, today and after today, that through which I have become the glad tidings of the people,

92 without harm, nor neglect, nor rancour, just as through him You spared me whoever criticised;

93 and for me You have been, in all movements and stillnesses, good deeds and blessings;

94 and You have led to me, in all customs, beyond the wishes of Your servants, the masters.

95 And bless, O Most Merciful, with peace, the son of ʿAbd Allāh, possessed of teaching,

96 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

97 O You with Whom You have purified, without toil, my intention, my word and my deed,

98 and You have led to me beyond request and wishes, and I have surpassed the people of ʿArafāt and Minā;

99 O You Who have made my pen a proof (ḥujja) for me, from the beginning of the year until Dhū l-Ḥijja;

100 O You Who have made for me every day above an accepted prayer and fast,

101 and for me have made, through You, every month above the worship of creatures through time,

102 and for me have made every season and year above the good of those who persevered in good deeds.

PARTIE 3

Nuuru Daarayni 3

103 O Allah, O All-Merciful, O Most Merciful, O You Who have been named "Powerful" (Al-Qadīr) and "Wise" (Al-Ḥakīm),

104 bless with a blessing, with a peace that has no end, him through whom You led to me what is desired,

105 by his mighty standing with You, without guile or reckoning, or any such trial.

106 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

107 And reward him on my behalf with a good that has been for none but him, without end, by the word "Be".

108 And bear witness for me today that I am Your servant, his servant, before all Your hosts.

109 And reward also the people of Badr, on my behalf, with a surpassing good, O Mighty in favour.

110 O Allah, O Eternal Refuge, truly You are the One (al-Aḥad), and You have led Your bounty to me since Sunday (al-aḥad).

111 Bless and grant peace perpetually upon the Prophet, sincere counsellor of every near one and stranger,

112 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

113 And bear witness for me, forever, to praise and gratitude, and contentment in You and from You, O Appreciative.

114 You have accepted for me (the service) from the year Asash (1301 AH / 1883-84) to Balsash (1332 AH / 1913-14), informing me of it in the year Lasash (1330 AH / 1911-12).

115 O best of those to whom the poor have turned, and best of those in whom the lowly found comfort,

116 You have made me free, through You, of lords, and through Muḥammad of (secondary) causes.

117 Bless and grant peace perpetually upon him, with his Family and whoever is linked to him

118 among his Companions and the Followers, worshippers for Your mighty Day, O You Who are worshipped.

119 You have comforted me in You, with the Book and Your servant, the Light, without reproach.

120 To You my gratitude until the Gardens (al-jinān), and for me You have made the soul good like the heart (al-janān).

121 O best of those to whom a hand is stretched: there has yielded to me from You, for the Gardens, what most profits.

122 O Lord of the earths and the lofty heavens, O You to Whom all creation together belongs, O You Who are exalted,

123 bless with a blessing and a guarded peace, glad tidings the like of which is not uttered,

124 upon Your Prophet, the Messenger, Your servant, the most excellent of those who led Your hosts to You,

125 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

126 just as through him You have made my tongue upright for me, and led me to You with the fair (works).

127 O You Who through him have illumined my heart, and led to me provisions for the Gardens,

128 bless, O All-Merciful, with peace, him who attained the converse (with Allah),

129 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

130 And reward through him, on my behalf, my parents, O You Who through him have mended my affair, folding it up.

131 And make my life, for him, perpetual gladness, and accept my piety with thanks.

132 And bless, O Most Merciful, perpetually, our master Muḥammad, giver of heights,

133 through You, and grant peace perpetually upon him, in his Family and his Companions with him.

134 He is the one through whom You dispelled the pitch-dark night from every wayfarer, man and woman,

135 and he led with faith, Islām and the finest excellence (iḥsān), possessed of submission;

136 and he made truth manifest and helped Your religion, bearer of glad tidings and warner, just as he triumphed.

137 And make through him my presented letters accepted, a magnified blessing.

138 And make its letters glad tidings that illumine the heart of whoever blesses with them, O Illuminer.

139 And raise the renown of whoever blesses with them, console his mind and expand his breast.

140 O Allah, O All-Merciful, O Most Merciful, O You Who have been named "Sovereign" (Al-Malīk) and "King" (Al-Malik),

141 bless with peace him who was given dominion, master of every human and every angel,

142 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

143 O You Who through him have fulfilled my need, and through him led to me the tongue of the Arabs,

144 lead to him sweetness and nourishment, O You Who through my expression have put the ruby to shame.

145 And through my writing lead to him what increases gladness with You, O Everlasting, ever growing.

146 O You Who have made my ink like the blood of those who, with him, were martyrs among the early ones,

147 since You have made my blessings fold up the journey for me, containing Your good pleasure,

148 through him; and You have put swords and spears to shame with that with which I praised him, O Possessor of magnanimity.

149 Toward me You have led the blessings of Allah, O You Who through him have protected me from the heedless.

150 And for me, by (the Name) "the All-Merciful", You have drawn benefit without harm, and for me You have prevailed;

151 and by (the Name) "the Most Merciful" You have been for me without reckoning, O You Who make all my being the best of merits (with You).

152 So bless, on my behalf, forever, and grant peace upon the Prophet; and be for me, and teach (me).

153 O Allah, bless and grant peace forever, on my behalf, upon him who led to You whoever has worshipped,

154 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

155 And bless, O All-Merciful, and grant peace upon the Prophet and Messenger, my ladder,

156 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

157 And drive toward others than my body and my spirit the adversities of the two Abodes, O You Who give me rest.

158 And drive corruption toward other than what I possess, and do not turn enemies and enviers toward me.

159 And make my creeds, my word and deed the best of benefits, and drive hope toward me.

160 And in what You make lawful for me, grant me what the righteous before me did not attain.

161 And bless, O Most Merciful, and grant peace upon him who benefits the saints and the learned,

162 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

163 O You Who have effaced forever the turning of reckoning toward me, and I have become one of merit (with You), 164 O Lord, I cannot enumerate Your praise: You are as You have praised Yourself (ḥadīth).

165 You have attested for me, my Lord, my turning away from what I sold to You, drawing from You,

166 and You have come between me and harm, and bestowed on me from You the best secret.

167 To You my gratitude for my prices, O Sovereign Who have given me possession of my time.

168 None but You enumerates Your praise, O You Who lead wishes to me, O Reckoner (Al-Muḥṣī).

PARTIE 4

Nuuru Daarayni 4

169 O Allah, bless and grant peace perpetually, on my behalf, upon the best of creation, Aḥmad,

170 his Family and his Companions; and grant me a secret for which those before me holily envy me.

171 And bless, O All-Merciful, perpetually, the best Prophet and Messenger, who has risen high,

172 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

173 And grant me, today and after today, the protection of all of me from misery and reproach.

174 And turn away what draws misery and reproach toward others than my person, O Preserver, O Peace.

175 And bless, O Most Merciful, and grant peace upon the Hashimite Prophet, the banner,

176 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

177 And spare me the adversities of the two Abodes, O You Who spare from the two fires and the two disgraces.

178 And make my heart, for You, O Everlasting, more beloved than the books sent down from the most Beloved.

179 And make my writing a leader to You, and make my life a benefit for the Prophet.

180 And make through him, after blessing and peace upon him, my writing such that it dispels every darkness.

181 O Allah, O All-Merciful, O Most Merciful, O You Who have been named "All-Knowing" (Al-ʿAlīm) and "All-Aware" (Al-Khabīr),

182 bless with a blessing accompanied by glad tidings, with Your peace, him who received the glad tidings,

183 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

184 And make my letters, through him, the best of vessels, O best of those whom a servant has called upon with letters.

185 And make my letters deferred miracles and the best of goods treasured with You.

186 And grant me today, through him, the "Be!" and it is, in repelling and drawing, and make rest good for me, 187 without calamity and without deprivation, forever; and overcome my adversaries for me.

188 And make clear for me, O my Sovereign, my breaths, O You Who spare from enemies and oppressors.

189 O best of hosts and best of providers, O my Preserver, O You Who host me, O You Who provide for me,

190 bless with a blessing accompanied by abundance the Prophet and Messenger, possessed of abundance,

191 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

192 And bear witness for me, forever, that I am grateful to You for (all) that thanksgivings have obtained,

193 and that I see none but You, O You Who place my desire within Your will,

194 and that to You, through the Chosen, I have turned all of me: You have kept for me what I chose.

195 Perpetually, then, on my behalf bless with peace him, in the Family and with the Companions, O Peace (As-Salām).

196 And bless, O All-Knowing, with the most excellent blessing, with Your peace, him who spares from haters, 197 driving them all toward others than me; and that is the Intercessor, "an ear of good" (Qur'ān 9:61).

198 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

199 And bless, O All-Aware, with the most beneficial blessing, him whose loftiness I manifest through my service,

200 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

201 And make my sheets, through him, and my pen the best of worship and the best ladder.

202 To You (I owe) a service that gladdens the best of Prophets: my breast is gladdened (by it).

203 And bless, O Bestower, perpetually, the best intimate and beloved, who has risen high,

204 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

205 And grant me today wonders that last, without guile: truly You are the Everlasting, the Eternal.

206 And spare me wrath and delusion in everything, and spare me the Deceiver (Qur'ān 31:33).

207 And grant me the gathering of what has been scattered among the chosen, out of generosity; and separate

208 between me and everything that draws (harm), toward the best of Your good pleasure; and make the favours good for me.

209 The Able (Al-Qādir), the All-Powerful (Al-Muqtadir), has spared me what destiny contains of toil.

210 A Sufficing One has driven what grieves toward a direction other than mine, Who has spared me everyone who did evil.

211 I have gladdened the best of creation with a lasting joy: truly I am to him beloved, intimate and servant.

212 The All-Powerful has made easy for me what was hard for others than me, and explained right guidance to me.

213 The Generous, the Honourer, has honoured me, and led me with His honoured Remembrance.

214 The beauty of a beneficent Everlasting One has come to meet me, and permanence and benefits have yielded to me.

215 The All-Powerful has drawn out blessing for me, and no turbidity comes toward my person.

216 O Allah, bless and grant peace perpetually upon the Intimate and Beloved, Aḥmad, 217 his Family and his Companions; and bring into being for me my aim, without harm, that it may be.

PARTIE 5

Nuuru Daarayni 5

218 And bless, O All-Merciful, and grant peace upon him who through me glories before the learned,

219 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

220 And make, by his mighty standing, my verses the highest of Your good pleasure, O Remover of suppressed grief.

221 And bless, O Lord of creation, and grant peace upon Your illuminating lamp (Qur'ān 33:46), the ladder,

222 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

223 And choose for me, O Allah, in my creeds, word and deed: You are my leader.

224 And raise them all without rejection, and efface the turning of what grieves, such as toil.

225 And make my moving together with my stillness like the worship of those firmly established.

226 And make Your good pleasure, forever, my breaths, without harm, O Effacer of crushings.

227 And make my writing like every (message) sent, O You Who have granted me the rewards of the Messengers

228 in what passed between me and whoever disbelieved, before; and You have been for me with what puts people to shame.

229 O Allah, bless and grant peace perpetually upon our Intercessor, the Bearer of glad tidings, Aḥmad, 230 his Family and his Companions; and teach my heart by his standing, and keep all of me safe.

231 And bear witness for me, forever, that I am a believer, a Muslim and a doer of good, and that I persevere.

232 And lead through him to my breast and my pen the best sciences, O Remover of pain.

233 O You Whose reward has made me forget the enemies and their harm, O Bestower of excellence,

234 bless with a blessing and grant peace upon him who guided with the finest speech,

235 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

236 And make, by his standing, my offerings with You perpetually magnified.

237 And bless, O All-Merciful, and grant peace upon him through whom You dispelled my darknesses,

238 just as through him You effaced my wrongdoing and the veil, and through him bestowed on me the finest of answers.

239 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

240 And turn the hearts of those who hated me toward other than what grieves me, O You Who made them all harmless to me alike.

241 And make Satan and his host despair of me, and grant me knowledge and acceptance.

242 And make worship of You, for me, sweeter than any other, O You with Whom is what is sweetest.

243 And make through him my life a mighty worship for You; grant me to magnify it.

244 Grant me to honour all the sacred things of Allah (Qur'ān 22:30), and spare me misery and regrets.

245 And reward all the Prophets and the Messengers, on my behalf, with good, O Granter of honey.

246 And reward the Companions with good things, on my behalf, together with the angels, by grace, 247 after blessing, peace and good pleasure upon them and for them; and lead my aim to me.

248 Lead to me being triumphant, the gladness of them all, and spare them delusion.

249 And bless, O Most Merciful, with peace, the son of ʿAbd Allāh, possessed of converse (with Allah),

250 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

251 And turn away, by his standing, toward others than me all that draws misery or darkness upon me.

252 And bless, O Allah, with a blessing and peace, him to whom belong the comprehensive words,

253 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

254 And bear witness for me, O Allah, in the singular (month) of Rajab, O You Who through him lead to me the loftiest wonder, 255 that I am greatly well pleased with You and with an Intercessor who has removed toil.

256 and that I am the servant of my Lord and the servitor of the Chosen, whose lordship endures.

257 And bless, O All-Merciful, and grant peace upon the Bearer of glad tidings and Warner, the banner,

258 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

259 And grant me desire for what pleases You and aversion to all that does not please You.

260 And bless, O Most Merciful, and grant peace upon him whose precedence is well known,

261 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

262 And make, by his standing, the months and years witnesses for me, and tame the arts (of knowledge) for me.

263 And illumine faith and Islām, with what is completed through me, and the pens.

264 And illumine the heart, make the tongue upright, O You to Whom (go) my remembrance and my gratitude with fair things.

265 And accept the repentance of all my being and purify it wholly, and make my heart skilled.

266 And make my pens and my ink guides of a manifest guidance for the wise.

267 And make, by the standing of the Chosen, my customs above the good pleasure of Your servants, the masters.

268 Āmīn, O Lord of creation, without turbidity or calamity, O You Who through him make the Decree run.

269 And bless, O One, perpetually, our master, whom You raised and he rose high,

270 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

271 And grant me (the affirmation of) the Oneness of every Messenger and every Companion, and make my writing honey-sweet.

272 And make my writing dearer to Allah than every writing, and to al-Māḥī, the most Beloved.

273 And make my speech rightly guided and guiding, and illumine my thought and guide my heart.

274 And bless, O Subtle, and grant peace upon the Prophet and Messenger, the ladder,

275 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

PARTIE 6

Nuuru Daarayni 6

276 And be gentle with Your servant, the Servant (al-Khadīm), and turn toward others than him what grieves him, that it may depart.

277 And grant him a beautiful kindness, and grant him his desire without fear.

278 And direct, by the standing of the Chosen, to the community a relief that spares it harm and distress.

279 There is none for the community of the Prophet but You, O One Who have multiplied Your gift for me.

280 To You is my turning on this day: I ask Your good for the best of communities.

281 Direct (Your relief) to the community of the Prophet, the accepted Intercessor — bless him —, freeing it from the cannon.

282 And free them, through You, from sins, and spare them the harm of every disobedient one.

283 And bless, O Subtle, O One, O Guide (Al-Hādī), the best of the obedient, who was guided,

284 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

285 And grant me today, by the right of Allah — glory be to Him — and by the Messenger of Allah,

286 after Your blessing upon him with peace, on my behalf, the gifts of the Beautiful and peace,

287 without affectation or wavering, O best of providers and best of hosts.

288 O Allah, O All-Merciful, O Most Merciful, O You Who have been named "Generous" (Al-Karīm) and "Benefiter" (An-Nāfiʿ),

289 bless with a blessing that draws noble virtues to my character and drives forbidden things

290 toward other than my heart and my form together, upon him who has gathered the best distinctions,

291 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

292 And lead to him the best peace that does not fade, that leads to me from You my desire, O Generous,

293 without harm, nor heartache, nor illness, nor enemies, and that makes the aim good for me.

294 O Allah, O All-Merciful, O Most Merciful, O You Who have been named "Compassionate" (Ar-Raʾūf) and "Most Merciful" (Ar-Raḥīm),

295 bless with a blessing that makes time good and makes security everlasting for me, until Eternity,

296 with a peace that protects from unbelief and its people, O You Who have gifted forgiveness,

297 upon him through whom You made me inherit the Book, and who drove reproach away from me.

298 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

299 And make through him my verses a source of gladness for him, and accept piety from me.

300 And forgive my parents, O Possessor of mercy, and grant them, Lord, mercy from You.

301 And set piety right with the correction of the All-Knowing, and make, Lord, my breast a spring of sciences.

302 O Allah, O All-Merciful, O Most Merciful, O You Who have been named "Loving" (Al-Wadūd) and "Glorious" (Al-Majīd), 303 bless with a blessing that draws to me affection, good pleasure, truthfulness and succours,

304 with a peace that drives depravity toward others than us and illumines a market for me,

305 upon him whose service has driven misery toward others than us and granted us triumph.

306 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

307 And make, by his mighty standing, my writing the highest of Your good pleasure: You have already given rest to my mount.

308 To me You have led what I used to long for, drawing it, O You Who spared me slander and lying.

309 O You Who spared me misery and envy, and did not turn enviers toward my directions,

310 O You Who have given me rest from Satan and from every troubler in my lands,

311 bless with a blessing that bears witness to my gratitude, with a peace that bears witness to my success,

312 upon him who drove whoever willed what grieves me toward others than me, (he) unique (in this).

313 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

314 And reward him on my behalf with a good that has been for none but him, and be pleased with the Companions with "Be".

315 And reward them on my behalf with a good that does not fade, O Enricher Who lead to me what I long for.

316 And make my letters, through him, Your good pleasure, O You Who were pleased with him since he pleased You.

317 O You from Whom, through him, the sacred months have come to me with my wishes, and Muḥarram has increased (them) for me,

318 bless with a blessing that never ceases to lead to the Prophet of Allah the best benefit,

319 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

320 and grant him peace in all (the months), O best Enricher, Benefiter, All-Hearing, 321 just as You made him chief of the Messengers, master of every angel and Messenger.

322 O You Who protected me from an enemy and from travel (safar), and led Your good things to me (in the month of) Ṣafar,

323 bless with a blessing that never ceases to bring in joy, with peace, arriving honey-sweet,

324 into the heart of him who does not resemble mankind in form, in character and in abundance of glad tidings.

325 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

PARTIE 7

Nuuru Daarayni 7

326 just as You made him the gladness of the righteous, and his light leads them at every moment.

327 O Allah, O Last (Al-Ākhir), You are the First (Al-Awwal), O You through Whom Rabīʿ al-Awwal becomes clear,

328 bless with a blessing that never ceases to be clear, arriving to the Prophet with well-being,

329 with a peace that no turbidity clouds, O You through Whom the Decree runs, by His leave,

330 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

331 just as You made him the illuminer of the masters, the chosen, the God-fearing, the leaders.

332 And bless him perpetually with peace, with all the noble party, O Peace.

333 O You Who lead to me the Remembrance like the Mathānī (Qurʾān 15:87), O You through Whom Rabīʿ ath-Thānī has been good,

334 bless with a blessing that never ceases to watch every enemy aiming at the Gardens,

335 with a peace that drives off every envier, as the Companions, possessed of light, the lions, drove off.

336 upon the Prophet of Allah, the sword of Allah, our master, the Light, the Messenger of Allah,

337 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

338 just as You made him the patron of the God-fearing, in secret and in public, the enemy of the wretched.

339 And through him You made me beloved of the Muslims, just as toward others than me You turned the criminals.

340 O You Who granted me a guidance that shows (the way), O You through Whom Jumādā al-Ūlā has been good,

341 bless with a blessing that never ceases to ascend, growing, accepted and lasting,

342 with a peace that brings the best of good into the heart of the master of creation, and it enters,

343 upon him whom I have loved, O my Lord, just as through it You made him an arbiter for me.

344 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

345 And efface forever the turning of harm toward me, by his standing, O You through whom You have been worshipped.

346 And make my rank with You the finest, and with You make me the most radiant servant.

347 And efface the turning of harm toward my body, and do not turn my enviers toward my directions.

348 O You Who protected me from the toil of the fleeting (world), and for me make Jumādā ath-Thāniya good,

349 bless with a blessing that makes glad tidings everlasting for me, glad tidings for the Chosen, the best of mankind,

350 with a peace that drives what is unfitting toward other than him who is worthy of my eulogy.

351 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

352 And make my praises of him and the blessings above all acts of worship and supplications.

353 And make me free, through them, of seeking means, O You Who protected me from enemies and ruin.

354 And bear witness for me, forever, that I am a believer, a Muslim and a doer of good, and that I persevere.

355 O You Who lead to me, from the chief of the sacred months — our intimate, our beloved Muḥarram —

356 what gladdens my heart, beneficial and perpetual, O You to Whom (goes) from me the praise of Aḥmad,

357 bless with a blessing and endless peace him who led to me what is desired,

358 in the present and the final outcome — and he is the support —, who drove toward others than me those who charged (me) with dotage.

359 O You Who lead to me, without earning or travel, what puts earning and weapons to shame, in Ṣafar,

360 bless with a blessing accompanied by peace and by growing, exalted blessings,

361 upon the Prophet of Allah, the joy of men and the adornment of women, who effaced the field (of the enemies).

362 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

363 O You Who lead to me what effaced false attribution, and led to me from You Rabīʿ al-Awwal,

364 bless with a complete blessing and peace, and with ascending, perfect blessings,

365 upon the son of ʿAbd Allāh, servant of Allah, leader of Allah's creatures to God.

366 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

367 O You Who lead to me the Remembrance and the Mathānī, and led to me from You Rabīʿ ath-Thānī,

368 bless with a blessing no blessing equals the Prophet of Allah, a lion against the haters, 369 with a peace no peace equals; and give glad tidings of me to the possessor of comprehensive words.

370 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

371 O You Who lead to me, out of generosity, magnification, and led to me from You Jumādā al-Ūlā,

372 bless with a blessing that drives enemies toward a direction other than mine and effaces illness,

373 with a peace that unveils secrets to me forever and sends the wicked away

374 toward others than me and others than my household, and sends rulers away like the princes

375 toward others than me, (away) from my direction, without meeting and without cajoling the wretched,

376 upon the Prophet and Messenger, the banner, who leads to me the knowledge of what we did not know.

377 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

PARTIE 8

Nuuru Daarayni 8

378 O You Who spared me every wretched one, and have been for me with joy and permanence,

379 bless with a blessing that makes known hidden things him who drove away faults,

380 our master Muḥammad, and grant peace, to the Family and the Companions; and magnify my pen.

381 O You Who lead to me from the Tablet the wonder, O You Who lead to me the benefits of Rajab, 382 bless with a blessing clear of all idle talk the Prophet of Allah, light of the eloquent.

383 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

384 And raise to him, through him, my writing without rejection, and accept my life through him.

385 And protect me from every toil and illness, and grant me the greatest in every aim.

386 And toward other than my body turn illness, and toward others than me drive the enemies.

387 O You Who gifted me what became clear to me, O You Who lead to me benefit in Shaʿbān,

388 bless with a blessing that makes (good) everlasting for me and never ceases to repel enemies, together, in secret and in public,

389 toward other than my person, and makes the rebel despair of me and of what You chose for me, O Willer.

390 with a peace that has no end, upon the Prophet who commands and forbids.

391 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

392 And make these letters of mine a shield (junna) for me against enemies and a garden (janna) for the Garden.

393 O You Who granted me the best outpouring, and bestowed on me a grace in the month of Ramaḍān,

394 bless with a blessing that leads to me all You have chosen for me, as a ladder to the Gardens,

395 with a peace that draws sweetness to me in Your Book during recitation;

396 and may both unveil to me all that was hidden of the sciences, and protect (me) from illusion,

397 upon him to whom You gave from Yourself the wise Remembrance, and through whom You illumined the heart of the wise,

398 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

399 And send misery and toil toward others than us, and grant us wealth.

400 And drive out of every heart that has aimed (at me) what grieves me — what grieves me —, wherever it lies in wait.

401 O Allah, O All-Merciful, You are the Patron (Al-Wālī), O You Who lead good to me in Shawwāl, 402 bless with a blessing that draws security, that makes heart and times good for me,

403 with a peace that makes clarity everlasting, that makes all of me a healing for creation,

404 upon him whose (truth that) I am his servant has appeared on land and sea, and who for me has subdued my adversary.

405 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

406 And let the enemies know that I am with You, not with them: glad tidings for Your hosts.

407 Make it clear to them with the clarifying of Him from Whom nothing is hidden, leading to me what is most hidden.

408 O Guide (Al-Murshid) Who led Your right direction to me, O You to Whom (goes) my gratitude from Dhū l-Qaʿda,

409 bless with a blessing that makes my sitting (in retreat) good in every month, and leads through me the blessed one

410 to You, with the Remembrance and the ḥadīth, with wisdoms, O Giver of transmission,

411 upon him through whom You made my soul good, just as through him You granted me guidance and wisdoms.

412 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

413 And send whoever wills all that grieves me toward a (place) other than my harm, marked out (as his).

414 And do not turn the wrongdoers toward my directions, and drive away my envier and his pain.

415 O You Who protected me, (as) model and proof, from Muḥarram to Dhū l-Ḥijja,

416 and have been for me in every month and year, O You Who are exalted above sleep and slumber (Qur'ān 2:255),

417 bless with a blessing that brings my wishes into being and leads ʿArafāt and Minā to me,

418 with a peace that extinguishes every evil and leads every praised good to me,

419 upon him the serving of whom led to me what did not yield to others than me, and yielded (to me).

420 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

421 And make my letters, through the most excellent of mankind, forever, good pleasure for him, the highest of glad tidings.

422 O You Who granted me the months as joy, for me, for me You made them all good together, and the ten (days),

423 You have led to me what is manifest and what is hidden, and joy appeared to me in the days of Minā.

424 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

425 bless with a blessing that never ceases to shine, whose lights cut through every veil,

426 with a peace whose light purifies the heart of the one who blesses and through it makes it skilled,

427 upon him whom I made my means of approach to You, and who led to me right guidance and his word.

428 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

PARTIE 9

Nuuru Daarayni 9

429 And make these letters of mine lights, O You Who turned perdition toward others.

430 O Allah, O All-Merciful, O Most Merciful, O You Who have been named "Peace" (As-Salām) and "Giver of security" (Al-Mu'min), 431 bless with a blessing that keeps my life safe from all through which darknesses come,

432 with a peace that turns the others away from my heart and draws the good

433 to love of me, without rancour, O You Who host me, Who have bestowed the dwellings on me,

434 upon him whose service made my dwellings good for me and granted me Your guidance.

435 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

436 And grant me security in every refuge, and through him make my life the best of benefactions.

437 And make my pens, my ink and the tongue callers to the Possessor of Beauty, with fair things.

438 And make my writing such that it brings to the Gardens, illumining my heart.

439 O Allah, O Lord of the Throne and the Footstool, O You Who gift Your most holy secret,

440 bless with a blessing that guarantees success for me, forever, with You, O Guardian (Al-Muhaymin),

441 with a peace that comes with righteousness, that leads to me the ḥadīth like the verses,

442 upon him to whom I gave my ink, with pens that my affection led.

443 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

444 And write for me today a sweetness that lasts in all You have chosen for me, O Everlasting, Eternal.

445 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

446 bless with a blessing that guards my inhabited dwellings from abandonment, O You to Whom fortification belongs,

447 with a peace that sets the limbs right, that illumines mornings and evenings for me,

448 upon him who drove the enemies toward other than my person, and removed illness.

449 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

450 And make through him, O my Sovereign, my concerns clarity from faults and healing from illnesses.

451 O Allah, O All-Merciful, O Most Merciful, O You Who have been named "All-Powerful" (Al-Qadīr) and "Able" (Al-Qādir),

452 And bear witness for me, forever, that I have turned from the enemies to You, and that I acknowledge 453 (Your favours) with remembrance and gratitude, without ingratitude, O You Who encompass the house with the neighbours.

454 blessing and greeting with peace the Prophet, who surpasses every near one and stranger.

455 Bless with a blessing that makes gifts everlasting, blessed, that prevent sins

456 from turning toward me, perpetually, upon the Prophet and Messenger Aḥmad,

457 his Family and his Companions; and raise to You my worship and my custom, by Your grace.

458 O Allah, O All-Merciful, O Most Merciful, O You Who have been named "All-Hearing" (As-Samīʿ) and "All-Seeing" (Al-Baṣīr),

459 bless with a blessing that makes righteousness everlasting for me, that makes success firm for the Gardens,

460 upon him whom my pens gladden, without delusion and without reproach,

461 with a peace that turns away every guile, and it departs forever toward others than me,

462 upon him who repelled those who wished to expel (him), formerly, for their unbelief, with gradual ruin,

463 toward other than what was chosen for me of the lawful; and he led to me the best of piety and gain.

464 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

465 And make my passing, my dwelling and the houses witnesses for me of the most excellent good things.

466 And make all my houses mosques, O You Who repel whoever does not prostrate 467 toward other than what grieves me, wherever he has turned, O You Who opened for us the gate of the Gardens.

468 O You Who protected all my being from misery, its people and everything that leads to misery,

469 bless with a blessing that makes my wishes sound, O best Healer: truly You are the One Who restores,

470 with a peace that illumines my mind, in the present, O Illuminer, and in the future,

471 upon him who drove illness away from me, and drove away Satan and the enemies.

472 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

473 And make sound (the affirmation of) Oneness and the words, and make sound the deeds and the states.

474 And drive out the leaning against me from the hearts of people who hated me, and make milk everlasting for me.

475 And make the outpourings of my breast illumine the hearts of Your party, and make its light shine.

476 And make my writing and my word, with You, the truth of certainty (Qurʾān 56:95), joy for Your hosts.

477 And raise my creeds, my word and deed, made sound, to You, and draw hope to me.

478 And make my life, O Beautiful, a shield (junna) against harm, for me a garden (janna) for the Garden.

479 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

480 You have conveyed to me the prices of what was sold from me, without revocation, with the glory of Rabīʿ.

481 To You my gratitude, after a lasting praise; on my behalf reward forever my mother and my father

482 with abundant good, (making them) both well pleased with me; and be for me with generosity and favour.

483 And bless on my behalf, forever, the Prophet, lamp of every near one and stranger,

484 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

PARTIE 10

Nuuru Daarayni 10

485 and increase him in the most excellent peace, forever, on my behalf, O best Generous One worshipped.

486 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

487 You have brought me to You through the accepted Intercessor, O You Who free from the envier and the cannon,

488 bless with a blessing that frees from Your enemies and Your prohibitions together, O Enricher,

489 with a peace that conveys righteousness to me, making gain and success everlasting for me,

490 upon him whose service turned the enemies toward others than me, all together, and they departed

491 toward other than my harm; and (turned away) corruption, guile, delusion and the enviers.

492 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

493 And grant me, today and after today, safety from what draws reproach.

494 And make, by the standing of the Chosen, my life a guarding of the Qur'ān with its verses

495 and the joy of every believer, Muslim and doer of good, protected from darknesses.

496 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

497 You have granted me contemplation and direct vision; You have blessed me, benefited me with clarity.

498 Bless with a blessing that prevents my return to other than what pleases You, and (spares me) hunger,

499 for me, forever, with a peace that conveys certainty from You to me, O Conveyer,

500 upon him through whom I turned to You for years, and You led to me the lawful and the arts (of knowledge).

501 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

502 And lead to me gratitude and new knowledge, and the reward of a benefit that drives off whoever deceived.

503 And raise my writings, O Appreciative, O best of those to Whom the grateful have turned.

504 I have begun to build an edifice of Remembrance: make my abiding for You the best gratitude.

505 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

506 You have separated me from harm, You have joined me to piety.

507 You have awakened me with the awakening of an Appreciative, All-Knowing, Everlasting One, with Whom is benefit: You have led the sciences to me.

508 Bless with a blessing that prevents halting and sloth, O You Who have perpetuated honey for me,

509 with a peace that makes gain everlasting for me in all You bestow on me of the lawful,

510 upon him whose servant You have made me, and led to me his pre-eminence among creation.

511 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

512 And give me the fear of Allah, and make easy for me what You made hard for others than me, especially.

513 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

514 Through You I have begun: so spare me obstacles, as I have willed, and spare me calamities.

515 And bless with peace, on my behalf, forever, him whose honouring has appeared to me,

516 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

517 And make my undertaking drive the enemies toward a direction other than mine, disgracing the adversary.

518 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

519 You have already come between me and the obstacle, You have joined me to what is fitting.

520 Bless with a blessing that bears witness to my undertaking, with a peace that bears witness to my going on,

521 upon him between whom and me there is union, without separation, O Confidant of whoever has arrived.

522 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

523 And reward on my behalf the people of Badr with good, O You Who through them drove harm toward others than me.

524 And grant me through them steadfast adherence to good things, making my passing and the abodes clear through them.

525 And make my writing above the supererogatory works, opening every lock for good.

526 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

527 You have granted me, by Your grace, union; You have spared me, by Your keeping, separation.

528 bless with a blessing that repels obstacles toward a direction other than mine and leads to me what is fitting,

529 with a peace that repels corruptions toward other than my person and spares me the corrupt,

530 upon him whom my service gladdens, (I being) foremost among the servants.

531 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

532 And make my recitation and my writing dearer to You than abundant good, O Beloved,

533 and in both lead the rewards to me from You, (You) just; and never shall I be unjust.

534 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

535 You have gathered for me what You chose, by (the Name) "the Gatherer" (Al-Jāmiʿ), and have been for me with the wish of the assemblies.

536 Bless with a blessing that bears witness for me to gratitude, with a peace that bears witness for me to praise

537 and my going on with truthfulness and fidelity, O You Who drove what terrifies toward others than me,

538 upon him through whom I reached You, and I neither hesitated nor separated.

539 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

PARTIE 11

Nuuru Daarayni 11

540 And accept my life through You, O Appreciative, O You Who raise gratitude from me to Him.

541 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

542 You have made room for me, with good pleasure, by (the Name) "the All-Embracing" (Al-Wāsi‘), and for the Gardens You have been for me with abundance.

543 You have led to me the obligatory and the recommended together, and the permitted: He has gathered both for me.

544 Bless with a blessing that leads generosity to me, O You Who drove the vast army toward others than me,

545 with a peace that sends toward others than me what You do not love for me, O You Who perpetuate my good,

546 upon him who conveyed to me good things with which he made life and the abodes clear for me.

547 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

548 And grant me writing with recitation, and perpetuate sweetness for me in both,

549 and in other than them, of what You make lawful for me, O You Who make lawful, Who have guarded my person from the shameful.

550 O our Lord, O our Lord, O our Lord, O our Lord, O our Intimate, O our Beloved!

551 You have commanded us to bless our master Muḥammad, the vessel of the heights,

552 and to greet him with peace; so I say, for Your noble Countenance: accept the saying from me.

553 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me, 554 To You be eulogy, praise and thanks together, for him who has gathered Your grace for me.

555 Bless with a blessing that fills the heaven and the earth, O You Who led growth to me,

556 with a peace that rises to the Throne and fills the Footstool, O Lord of the outspread earth,

557 and may both bring joy into the heart of the Prophet, the gladness of every near one and stranger,

558 upon the chosen Prophet, Muḥammad, his Family, his Companions and the praisers.

559 And make, by his mighty standing, my speech illumined, O Possessor of loftiness and bounty.

560 And make it a service without faults, O Knower of the manifest and the hidden.

561 And grant me Your being for me in it and in other than it, in all that comes from me.

562 And make clear for me my creeds, my word, my deeds and my character, O my Strength.

563 You have come to meet me with reward and recompense toward Your Gardens, and with what is right.

564 And make, by the standing of the Chosen, my life the gladness of the ḥadīth and the verses.

565 And spread over me the blessings of (the sūra) al-Fātiḥa, and make my pens openers (fātiḥa) of hidden things.

566 And spread over me the blessings of (the sūra) al-Baqara, O You Who turn Your Saqar (the Fire, Qur'ān 74:26) toward others than me.

567 And spread over me the blessings of (the sūra) Āl 'Imrān, in the present and the final outcome.

568 And grant me, by the sūra an-Nisā' (Women), well-being of morning and evening.

569 And grant me the opening and make the sciences easy for me, and increase me from You in knowledge, O All-Knowing (Qur'ān 20:114).

570 You have granted me of Your mighty grace what led me to gratitude with well-ordered verses.

571 You have given me refuge in You from Satan; You have been for me in passing and in the lands.

572 You opened for me the gate of good things, closing the gate of evils, and it closed before me.

573 You have split open (baqarta) for me the secret of the beneficial sciences, O Sender of the best guidance, O Raiser of it.

574 You have sheltered me with You, O Generous, O Everlasting, Whose gratitude I long for.

575 You have banished Iblīs and what allies with him toward others than me, perpetually, O Allah.

576 O Allah, bless forever and grant peace upon Your Prophet, the lamp of the learned,

577 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

578 And grant us through him the straight path, the path of those from whom whoever turns to others is sick (cf. Qur'ān 1:6-7).

579 And grant us faith and Islām, and the finest excellence (iḥsān) and surrender.

580 And grant us soundness of hearts from the faults of the self, O Nourisher Who has guaranteed (it).

581 And grant us protection, O Bestower, O You to Whom belong the returning and the going.

582 And grant us certainty and steadfastness, and make arrival and repose everlasting.

583 And bless, O All-Merciful, and grant peace upon the Arab Prophet, the banner,

584 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

585 And make the letters of these ordered verses draw the great wishes.

586 And make them all the loftiest blessings, and guide my stillnesses and movements.

587 And bless, O Most Merciful, and grant peace upon the Messenger possessed of distinctions, the ladder,

588 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

589 And make my life gladness for him, O Everlasting Who have spared me harm.

590 And write for him, in all that comes from me, what gladdens him, O You Who guard my sides.

591 O Allah, bless and grant peace at every moment upon Your Beloved, chief of the righteous,

592 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

PARTIE 12

Nuuru Daarayni 12

593 And take away forever what grieves my heart toward others than me, and perpetuate my gladness.

594 And bless, O All-Merciful, and grant peace upon him who led the learned to You,

595 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

596 And take away what grieves my heart, without its being turned toward me: let it go (elsewhere).

597 And write for me today the stations of the men (of God), O You Who lead noble offspring to me perpetually.

598 And bless, O Most Merciful, and grant peace upon my Intimate and my Beloved, the ladder,

599 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

600 And grant me in writing what belongs to no one, O You to Whom belongs "Be", and it is (Qur'ān 36:82).

601 And write for me today a guarded (gift) never seen by others than me, and by others than me it shall never be seen.

602 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

603 Bless with a blessing that leads a guide to me, that leads to me endlessly rightly-guided ones,

604 with a peace that for me tames the foolish, a taming by which You make them regret, O my Lord,

605 upon him whom You made the one I serve, O You Who through him bestowed pre-eminence on me.

606 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

607 And through my writing subject to me all who do not love me: for You are the All-Hearing (As-Samīʿ).

608 And grant me today a guarded (gift) that silences whoever is grieved by my pre-eminence: silence him.

609 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

610 Bless with a blessing that removes the hearts of those who do not love me toward others than me, O Possessor of the milk,

611 with a peace that takes away toward others than me what grieves me, forever, and it goes,

612 upon him who removed the envious toward others than me and warded off corruption.

613 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

614 And with You make me the glad tidings of the noble, O Everlasting Who have protected me without break.

615 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

616 Bless with a blessing that takes away turbidities toward a direction other than mine, and the treacherous,

617 and takes away what is sold from me forever toward other than my person, and what is not praised,

618 with a peace that makes glad tidings eternal for me, upon him whom You made the pride of humankind.

619 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

620 And convey my price to the Gardens for me, O Everlasting Who have been for me with safety.

621 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

622 Bless with a blessing that bestows mysteries on me and removes faults toward other than my heart,

623 with a peace that softens hearts for me without harm and makes the milk eternal for me,

624 upon him through whom You made my heart good, and bestowed on me generously by his hand.

625 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

626 And grant him, in me, joys that last, O You Who through him made me his servant.

627 And grant my two parents, in filial piety, a joy that remains without delusion.

628 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

629 You bought from me all that was sold from me, without cancellation, and led a springtime to me (Qur'ān 9:111).

630 Bless with a blessing that makes the price eternal for me and conveys the glad tidings of time to me,

631 with a peace that makes clarity eternal for me, upon him who was described as "an ear of good" (Qur'ān 9:61).

632 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

633 And turn what is sold from me, forever, toward other than my person, and make the joy perpetual.

634 And make me today and after today abstinent from all that You have not approved for me.

635 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

636 You bought my wares from me and led their equivalent to me, and bestowed Your good pleasure on me.

637 Bless with a blessing that leads to me all that You chose for me, and teach my heart,

638 with a peace that takes away toward others than me every enemy and harm, and they go,

639 upon him who is gladdened by my abiding with the Book forever, and by my ascending.

640 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

641 And make my life a joy for the Prophet, O You Who through him spared me harm.

642 And make my piety toward my two parents reach them, as the best piety accomplished.

643 And make all that I have done as piety for my two parents the best striving and joy.

644 You enjoined on us goodness toward our parents (Qur'ān 29:8), O You Who made me a lofty servant.

645 Reward on my behalf my two parents with a good that multiplies, O Creator of what I willed, O Giver of effect.

646 By the right of Your noble Countenance purify my whole being, and make my heart skilful.

647 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

PARTIE 13

Nuuru Daarayni 13

648 Bless with a blessing that leads truthfulness to me in my services and rains down effusions in them like rain,

649 with a peace that bestows fidelity on me in them, upon the effacer who effaced what terrifies.

650 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

651 And guard all my sides from turbidity, O You by Whose command the decree flows.

652 And grant me clarity in the nights and in all the days, with my family.

653 And turn what draws misery and hardship toward other than my person, and protect me from every toil.

654 And make the world lead the benefits to me, (I) a slave, a righteous servant.

655 And drive toward others than me all corruptions, (I) a grateful slave, and protect me from what is corrupt.

656 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

657 To You be my gratitude forever and my praise, O You Who preserve me from error and intent.

658 Bless with a blessing that illumines all of me and mends the body, O Fashioner (Al-Muṣawwir),

659 with a peace that takes away sickness toward other than my person, together with the enemies,

660 upon the beautified, the beautiful man, the good, the best, the giver of glad tidings.

661 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

662 And grant me interpretation and exegesis, and make both easy for me, an easing.

663 And preserve my creeds together with the words, all the deeds and the states.

664 And lead the characters to noble traits, and protect me from straying and destitution.

665 And in the Book and the ḥadīth grant me what the righteous did not attain before me.

666 And break the customs for me in the disciplines, O Giver of the manifest and the hidden.

667 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

668 Bless with a blessing that makes the beneficial sciences sound for me through You: for You are the All-Knowing (Al-ʿAlīm).

669 with a peace that makes sound for me the righteous deed that completes hope,

670 upon him for whom I have led my ink, with pens that my love has led,

671 for Your noble Countenance, O Lord, for years, (I) a slave, a servant; and You spared me moaning.

672 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

673 You have led my creeds with my words and my deeds toward good, like the states.

674 You have made the characters dwell in noble traits, O You Who effaced exile and destitution.

675 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

676 You honoured me by Your being the Generous, and led help and honour to me.

677 Bless with a blessing no blessing can match, that removes the haters toward a direction other than mine,

678 with a peace that makes the difficult easy for me, upon him through whom the journey has ended at You.

679 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

680 And make through him my soul with my desire two helpers for me, through You, toward my God-fearing.

681 And lead both with the best of good to the Gardens, and preserve all of me and illumine the heart for me.

682 And preserve the heart from others (than You), and make my life the glad tidings of the elect.

683 And busy Your enemies with other than harming me, O Everlasting Who made my joy abide.

684 Bear witness for me to my gratitude to You in the solitary (month), Rajab, and in others, O You Who perpetuate wonder for me.

685 My word about You today: I cannot enumerate the praise of an Everlasting One Who has been for me, O Reckoner (Al-Muḥṣī).

686 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

687 Bless with a blessing that takes the enemies away toward other than what You chose for me, and they go,

688 with a peace that acknowledges my success, without misery, drawing from effusions,

689 upon him through whom You have put me forward forever, through You, without meeting toil.

690 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

691 And drive through him the hateful things of the two Abodes toward other than my person, together with the two disgraces.

692 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

693 Bless with a blessing that draws the best of good for me forever, that milks the milk of knowledge,

694 for me, with a lasting peace that subdues for me every enemy and makes all of me skilful,

695 upon him through whom Your being for me has appeared, and his being for me, through You, has also become renowned.

696 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

697 And write for me today and after today my being a joy for the best of the people,

698 without meeting an unbeliever, or a hypocrite, or an associator; and make my market thriving.

699 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

700 Bless with a blessing whose light endures, that bears witness for me that I am the servant,

701 with a peace whose benefit does not end, that leads to me with good pleasure what I desire,

702 upon the Hāshimite, Arab Prophet, him through whom You fulfilled, Lord, my need.

703 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

704 And lead to me the greatest in all my aims, O You Who efface my illnesses.

705 And grant me in writing and recitation above the rewards of the radiant ones, and sweetness.

706 And make my life glad tidings for the Chosen, in his Family and his Companions possessed of God-fearing.

707 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

PARTIE 14

Nuuru Daarayni 14

708 You opened for me the gate of gratitude, and the gate of complaint closed with me, worn out,

709 for what has been effaced of trial and sickness, together with my reckoning, and for my attaining the aim.

710 Bless with a blessing that makes vision eternal for me with contemplation and leads clarity of speech to me,

711 with a peace that increases my gains, that bestows on me the most beneficial tables,

712 upon him who is gladdened by my paronomasia, since he guarded all of me from the slinking Whisperer (Qur'ān 114:4).

713 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

714 And reward him on my behalf every day with abundant good, clear of blame.

715 And make my ink and my pens dearer to You than abundant good, O Beloved.

716 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

717 You have led steadfastness and certainty to us, O You Who protect us from misery and its people.

718 Bless with a blessing that makes a delight eternal in the heart of the best of creation, and it remains eternal,

719 upon him who is gladdened by my constancy, that is, the Possessor of al-Burāq, beloved of the Possessor of Ḥayzūm (Gabriel).

720 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

721 And protect me in all things from Your stratagem, O You Who granted me, by grace, Your remembrance.

722 And in interpretation and exegesis lead the hidden things to me with ease.

723 And preserve my heart and my tongue from idle talk, and with You make me the light of the eloquent.

724 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

725 You inspired me, You granted me success toward good, You preserved me from creation and from harm.

726 Inspire me to gratitude for the graces, O You Who make clarity and growth eternal,

727 by Your blessing, with a blessing on my behalf, the Prophet chosen by favour,

728 with a peace that makes one free of need of others than him, in the outward and the inward, O Enricher (Al-Mughnī),

729 upon him for whom You accepted my service from me, through him, and spared me the shock.

730 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

731 And turn away, by the right of Your noble Countenance, O Giver of pre-eminence and honour, 732 toward other than my person the hateful things together with all corruptions, and gather the wishes for me.

733 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

734 You have turned the harm of every month toward other than my person, without return, and all (months) are alike,

735 and the harm of the years and the days, through a vigil and a fast that put to shame (by their abundance),

736 and the harm of humans and the harm of the jinn, in all that is outward and hidden,

737 and the harm of what is in the earth and the heaven and what is between them; and You led to me what is most upright,

738 and the harm of the two Abodes: so accept my gratitude and raise it to the Throne, and raise my renown for me (cf. Qur'ān 94:4), 739 by Your blessing, with a blessing with peace, on my behalf, him who comprises the all-embracing words.

740 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

741 And reward him on my behalf with what cannot be counted of glad tidings: You have helped the victorious.

742 You helped me through him against the enemies, You preserved me from what breeds sickness.

743 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

744 You have separated me from the unbelievers, You have joined me to the grateful.

745 You have set me apart from unbelief, and You lead to me forever the people of forgiveness.

746 Bless with a blessing that makes the Accursed and his party despair of me: for You are the Helper,

747 with a peace that leads the wishes to me from You, as joy for all the trustworthy,

748 upon him who has made me, with him, one who blesses him and greets him with peace.

749 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

750 And make through him my whole being preserved, and grant me forever his veneration.

751 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

752 Bless with a blessing that guards my side, O Best Guardian, to Whom belongs fortification,

753 with a peace that drives what does not benefit toward others than me, that leads to me what benefits,

754 upon him to whom I pledged allegiance with my pen and with my ink, effacing my wrongs.

755 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

756 And make my writing benefits of the Prophet, as through him You guard the ropes of my tent.

757 You have granted me that no harm return to me, forever, O You Who guard the pearls for me.

758 You took beforehand what You bought from me, without cancellation, and You sold on my behalf.

759 By the right of Your noble Countenance grant me what the righteous did not attain before me.

760 Grant me the remorse of all my enemies for intending my harm; do not drive the Accursed toward me.

761 And grant me today my clinging to certainty, and with You make me the joy of the God-fearing.

762 You granted me verification in my taking and in my leaving, and joined me to the faithful guide.

763 You bestowed on me, O All-Powerful (Al-Qadīr), arrival to You, distinction and detailed exposition.

764 You banished Iblīs and whoever did evil toward other than my person, and what did harm.

765 Grant me the permanence of gratitude for the Gardens, with spirit, body and heart, 766 without doubt and without illusion, and turn toward others than me what draws afflictions.

767 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

PARTIE 15

Nuuru Daarayni 15

768 You have taken away my doubt, and it shall never return to me: the Restorer (Al-Muʿīd) has annihilated it.

769 Bless with a blessing that is for my person delights without end, with an accepted peace,

770 upon him who is gladdened by my serving him, foremost among the servants.

771 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

772 And come between me and doubt through him, O You Who soften the rock like a levelling.

773 And increase my longing for Your good pleasure, O You Who raise the servant if he has pleased You.

774 And make my heart detached from all that You have not approved for me, and guide me as a teacher.

775 And prevent the turning of straying and wrath toward my sides, and spare me all wrath.

776 And enrich me through You, together with the permitted, unto the Gardens, and increase my gain.

777 Grant me in the permitted, for me, the rewards of Your radiant servants; and never shall I be unjust.

778 And make my life free of sins, of every wrongdoer and every rebel.

779 Āmīn, O Lord of the heaven and the earth, O You to Whom I have conveyed the best of obligations.

780 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

781 You have spared me the hateful things of the two Abodes, You have spared me the two disgraces and the two fires.

782 Bless with a blessing that honours my side, with a lasting peace, O Most Generous,

783 upon him by whose service You honoured me, O Guardian Who preserved me from its shock.

784 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

785 And grant me today and after today the preservation of all of me from harm and blame.

786 You have made my heart a receiver of the best knowledge, You have made all of me a striver in the best striving.

787 You have granted me today my undertaking of the Book, and what You chose for me: I have been preserved from reproach.

788 And protect my whole being from disobedience, and make my intention like the deeds of the righteous.

789 You have granted me remembrance (of God) with sweetness, and led teaching and recitation to me.

790 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

791 You have brought to completion my sale and my striving with letters, O Everlasting Who have been for me with the fullness of vessels.

792 Bless with a blessing that bears witness to my gratitude, with a peace that bears witness to my sufficiency,

793 upon him whose servant You have made me, and who has secured pre-eminence for me.

794 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

795 And reward him on my behalf with a good never seen for others than him, and for others than him it shall never be seen.

796 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

797 You have taken away all that grieves me toward others than me, and made the finest favours eternal for me.

798 Bless with a blessing that makes my life clear for me, with a peace that sets my affair right for me,

799 upon him who honoured me with my being a marvel from him for all creation.

800 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

801 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

802 You have taken from me all doubt and illusion, and led to my heart a hidden knowledge.

803 Bless with a blessing that drives faults toward other than my person, that unveils mysteries

804 to my heart, shining, illumining, with a peace that takes away disgrace

805 toward other than my writing, my tongue and the letters, upon him who through me shows every noble one.

806 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

807 And raise my writing to Your mighty Throne, O You Who effaced what grieves me with remission.

808 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

809 Bless with a blessing that drives the envious toward other than my direction, that bars the corrupters

810 (access) to my pen, my body and my heart, with a peace that preserves from despoiling,

811 upon him who has granted me honour and glad tidings that shall not depart from me.

812 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

813 And grant me today and after today my being preserved without blame.

814 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

815 You have granted me from You constancy in glad tidings, and toward others than me You drove the Nineteen (guardians of Hell, Qur'ān 74:30).

816 Bless with a blessing that leads the Muslims to me, with a peace that preserves from the criminals,

817 upon him through whom You made my dwelling good for me, as You drew my station to me.

818 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

819 And grant me today the permitted things of humankind, and make my life for the Prophet the best glad tidings.

820 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

PARTIE 16

Nuuru Daarayni 16

821 You have turned what You sold from me in Rajab toward other than my person, and led wonder to me.

822 Bless with a blessing that makes the price eternal for me and leads certainty to me at all times,

823 with a peace that takes away turbidities, that guards for me what was chosen for me and the abode,

824 upon him whose service, on land and at sea, has led to me an immense piety.

825 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

826 And grant him — may Allah bless him — in the Family, the Companions and whoever befriends him,

827 greeting him with peace in all, the reward of the Appreciative, the Raiser, the All-Hearing,

828 in all that issues from me toward the Gardens and in the Gardens; and make the heart good for me.

829 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

830 You have guarded Your remembrance with my heart and my hand, and for the Gardens You have been for me with what most benefits.

831 Bless with a blessing that turns hearts for me, with a peace that bestows milk on me,

832 upon him to whom You guided me, and he guided me to You, with his two goods.

833 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

834 And grant me the folding of the distance of the spiritual path, O You Who free one from the path and from kings.

835 And grant me the blessing of the Night Journey (al-Isrā'), and that I be the gladness of every beholder.

836 And grant me my being like every envoy, and make my letters like the deeds of the Messengers,

837 upon them the best blessing and peace, from Him Who through them has granted me the best speech.

838 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

839 You have separated me from the people of the depraved, preserving from blame.

840 Bless with a blessing that makes my life safe for me from the hateful things together, O Giver of security (Al-Mu'min),

841 with a peace that repels calamities toward other than my person, that draws the distinctions

842 to me forever, without toil or labour, upon him who conveys hope to me.

843 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

844 And reward with thanks what I say here, O Best of Him toward Whom the intellect tends.

845 O Book of my Lord, you are the Book, and of you He said: "This is the Book" (Qur'ān 2:2).

846 I have adorned writings for the Countenance of Him Who sent you down, through you, and my weight makes its way to the Gardens.

847 You have accompanied me, escorting me to the Garden, the abode of permanence, of wishes and of favour.

848 I have made you an intimate forever, O beloved, O you through whom I have become free of every physician.

849 Allah the Generous has blessed my life for me through you, and you lead to me a reward that does not depart.

850 You have enriched me, preserved me, honoured me, guarded me, given me dominion, given me glad tidings.

851 He Who sent you down has brought permanence into being for me through you, and led ascent to me through you.

852 Allah has raised me to the Gardens through you; and there is no god but Allah.

853 You have given me dominion, the dominion of the best (Book) sent down from the best Sender-down, Who makes my hospitality clear.

854 You have banished my doubt, my enemies and the accusations toward others than me; You have unveiled for me what was hidden.

855 He leads me together with you, O Book, He Who said of you: "This is the Book".

856 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

857 You have honoured me with the honouring of Him Who does what He wills, and what I asked of You, O Lord, has come to pass.

858 So bless on my behalf, with peace, forever, him who leads to me what is praised,

859 without hardship or toil, O You Who through him accepted my edifice for me.

860 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

861 And reward through him, on my behalf, Your noble host (of angels) with their wish from You, and with what surpasses the aim.

862 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

863 I am well pleased with You today with the good pleasure of all Your noble servants, O Best Hearer.

864 Bless with a blessing that gives glad tidings to my life, without end, O You with Whom are the glad tidings,

865 with a peace that repels misery toward other than my person, that brings permanence

866 to me, without stratagem or delusion, that makes my writing the most beneficial piety,

867 upon him whose love You granted me, and led to me Your being for me and his service.

868 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

869 And make through him my honour the highest good pleasure, O You Who place the greatest in my aims.

870 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

PARTIE 17

Nuuru Daarayni 17

871 You have already come between me and all that You have not approved for me: so increase the learned through me.

872 Bless with a blessing that completes my outward, beautifying, and beautifies my inward,

873 with a peace that leads my limbs to good in the mornings and evenings (Qur'ān 7:205),

874 upon him who has already come, forever, between me and whoever refused to worship.

875 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

876 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

877 You have given me mastery over my soul with my desire, and You lead to me what my supplication required.

878 You have led to me the goods of Your world, and led to me with good pleasure Your second (reward, the Hereafter).

879 You have driven corruptions toward other than my person, and led to me the greatest in my delights.

880 Bless with a blessing that bears witness for me to my contentment with You, and to an increase from You,

881 with a peace that makes certainty eternal for me, by which You make me the joy of the God-fearing,

882 upon him whom my balance visits at every hour, without sorrows.

883 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

884 And come between me and evil through him, forever, O You Who take away the evildoer.

885 And join me through him to all that gladdens me of wishes, greeting with peace.

886 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

887 You have removed the Fire by grace toward others than me, and led to me the dirham and the dīnār.

888 And for me You have blessed both, O Benefactor (An-Nāfi‘), O You Who make my grace clear.

889 And You have come forever between me and that from which refuge is sought in You, as a help.

890 Bless with a blessing that drives every corrupt thing toward other than my person, that perpetuates for me the gain of the market

891 without departing, with a surpassing peace that bestows on me forever what is fitting,

892 upon him through whom You made my affirmation of Your Oneness sound for me, Your unique Messenger,

893 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

894 as through him You have realised for me a union befitting me; and spare me separation.

895 O You Who make my writing above my own estimate and the estimate of others than me, O Mighty in favour.

896 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

897 You have granted me my request and what surpasses the desired, without objection, and unveiled the aim for me.

898 Bless with a blessing that bears witness to success for me, with a peace that bears witness to righteousness

899 for me, upon him through whom You spared me the Accursed and what You did not approve for me, O Helper.

900 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

901 And bear witness to my gratitude to You on this day and after it, O You Who protected from blame.

902 You conveyed to me, You taught me, You explained to me; there is no doubt in what You bestowed on me from Your loftiness.

903 You softened for me without harm, You gladdened me, You made gentle for me, You honoured me, You praised me.

904 You extended for me, You made easy for me, You gave me dominion, You effaced what grieves me, You established me.

905 Take away (evil) through him, and bestow preservation on me, and extend good to me without shock.

906 Make the dominion abide for me, and bless on my behalf, greeting with peace, the Prophet, and be for me.

907 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

908 You have made me attain triumph and an intellect that protects from whoever shows himself forever an adversary.

909 Bless with a blessing that never ceases to open for us the gates of the Gardens by the Fātiḥa,

910 with a peace that turns toward others than us the gates of the fires and makes our good abide,

911 upon him through whom You granted me the Book, as he spared me reproach.

912 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

913 And grant me through him what I used to long for of wishes, without toil, O Generous,

914 and without affliction and without turbidity, and be for me with gladness, O Possessor of power.

915 And grant me what is not seen for others than me, in Allah, in the Remembrance and in the "ear of good" (Qur'ān 9:61),

916 — may Allah bless him with peace — in the Family and the Companions possessed of knowledge.

917 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

918 You have awakened me with the awakening of an Appreciative, All-Knowing, Everlasting One, Who led benefit to me with the sciences.

919 To You is due from me gratitude from Sha'bān, before it and after it, as an offering of nearness.

920 Bless with a blessing that leads to me the recovery of what has escaped me, that fills my heart with wisdoms,

921 with a peace that draws for me the blessings of what You chose for me; that settles for me the movements

922 and my stillnesses in the greatest good pleasure, without tremor or aggression,

923 upon him whom my life gladdens, and You led the signs to me by his standing.

924 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

PARTIE 18

Nuuru Daarayni 18

925 And grant me today, in my habits, and after it, the gifts of the masters.

926 And write for me today and after it good pleasure in all the aims; reward the purpose for me with thanks.

927 Make my creeds dwell in the affirmation of Oneness, and revive through me the way of the Unique (Prophet).

928 And make the word upright and illumine the heart, O Sender-down, Who bestowed the sūras on me.

929 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

930 You granted me, on the day of my writing this (poem), pearls and rubies that perpetuated (precious) fragments.

931 Accept from me gratitude for Your noble Countenance, O You Whose favours with me shall not depart, 932 by Your blessing and Your greeting with peace, on my behalf, him through whom I am vaunted over the learned.

933 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

934 And make my writing through him, O Appreciative, O You toward Whom gratitude from me has turned,

935 gratitude, guidance, sainthood and good pleasure, O You Who protected me from enemies and sickness, 936 in every month; and make the months for me acts of worship that have contained (bridal) dowries.

937 And make my writings with You, O Beautiful (Al-Jamīl), Your highest good pleasure, that does not swerve from You.

938 To Your noble Countenance my writing has already turned, O You with Whom it has been extolled.

939 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

940 You have made me proceed with the Truth, possessed of certainty; (from) all that You did not approve for me, protect me.

941 Bear witness for me to my veneration of Your noble Countenance, together with the Book and Your noble Prophet.

942 And bless on my behalf forever, with peace, him who made me inherit the best speech.

943 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

944 And grant me truthfulness with fidelity, and spare me the breaking (of pacts) and harshness.

945 You have turned to me in forgiveness: so perpetuate for me righteousness, steadfastness and the most beneficial success.

946 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

947 You have brought my journey to You to its end through the Chosen, and led Your grace to me unto the Gardens.

948 And You have guarded my secret for me in the two Abodes, as You protected me from the two disgraces.

949 Bless with peace, without end, the son of ʿAbd Allāh, possessed of splendour.

950 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

951 And guard the Remembrance through me, and return to me all You chose for me, with Your good pleasure, O All-Hearing.

952 And guard my heart, my tongue and my hand unto the Gardens, Everlasting One, with what most benefits.

953 And show me the realities of things, O Giver of gifts of dwellings and shades.

954 And make my edifice pure for Your Countenance, O One, Whose likeness there is not.

955 You have conveyed to me today, before today and after it, a secret that protected from blame.

956 I have renewed the abandoning of relapse (into sin) for veneration, and You have been for me with prose and verse.

957 Fulfil for me hope in my leaving and in my taking, without breach and without what terrifies.

958 Fulfil for me hope in every refuge, and make my life, from You, the finest of favours.

959 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

960 Reward with thanks, teach, bless, answer, and benefit with what lasts, the loftiest marvel.

961 And bless on my behalf forever and grant peace upon my means of access, the intercessor, the ladder.

962 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

963 And raise, by the right of Your noble Countenance, my writing to You with honour.

964 And with You make it the most exalted good, without end, and make my provisions eternal.

965 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

966 You have brought into being for me what is not seen for others than me, in You and in the Qur'ān, the vessel of good,

967 and in Your Prophet and Your servant, the Messenger, him through whom You convey to me from You the best request.

968 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

969 And banish Iblīs through him with a banishing that does not depart, toward other than my person, O Guardian (Al-Ḥafīẓ), O Generous.

970 And with You make me possessed of righteousness, without contention, with success.

971 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

972 You have protected me today and after today from the devils and from all blame.

973 Bless with peace, without end, on my behalf, him who led knowledge to me.

974 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

PARTIE 19

Nuuru Daarayni 19

975 And bear witness for me forever that I am well pleased with You and with him, possessed of an increase from You.

976 Increase me in knowledge, good pleasure and refinement, O You Who spared me misery and misfortune.

977 And drive Your enemies forever toward other than my harm: drive them all alike toward others than me.

978 And renew through me guidance, Your guidance, and busy Your enemies in a direction other than mine.

979 And reward with thanks my humble entreaty, O All-Hearing, O One toward Whom the multitudes tend.

980 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

981 You have set me apart from what harms, and come between me and whoever harms,

982 without reunion, forever: so to You be my gratitude and my praise, proceeding with remembrance.

983 Bless and grant peace, O my God, on my behalf, upon my means of access, the path of favour.

984 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

985 And bear witness for me today to my proceeding toward what You love for me; increase my aims.

986 Increase me in turning toward You with good pleasure, o You Who spared me enemies and sickness.

987 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

988 Bless with a blessing that turns every harm toward others than me, with a peace that turns

989 what grieves me toward others than me, forever, upon him who has made my glad tidings perpetual.

990 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

991 And bring out what grieves me, through You, from every heart, proceeding with Your drawing

992 for me and Your repelling toward others than me all that harms me, unto the Gardens, marked (by Your sign).

993 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

994 You have made me safe from the harm of the slinking Whisperer, of the jinn, of the enemies together, and of humankind (Qur'ān 114:4-6).

995 Bless with a blessing and a peace that are both complete, that encompass all joy and safety, 996 upon him who has already come, forever, between me and whoever drags toil upon me.

997 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

998 And make whoever wants my exhaustion despair of me, O You Who remove the one who wearies me.

999 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

1000 You have fulfilled hope for me, O Generous, O You with Whom is all I long for.

1001 Bless with a blessing and a peace that bear witness for me to triumph and remove misery

1002 toward other than my creed, my word and deeds, and lead hope to me toward the Gardens,

1003 upon him toward whom my ink tends, escorted by truthfulness and love.

1004 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

1005 And make my ink, above every water, a blessing like the rain of heaven.

1006 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

1007 Bless with a blessing and a peace that repel what grieves me toward other than my person, that benefit

1008 my whole being, in the open and in secret, that bestow on me the loftiest secret,

1009 upon him toward whom my pens tend, with eulogy and blessing, together with my speech.

1010 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

1011 And efface through him the aim of idle talk from my writing, O You Who effaced my faults with remission.

1012 You have effaced the aiming of idle talk at my writing, O You Who conveyed my love to the Prophet.

1013 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

1014 Bless with a blessing that raises what I have done to the Throne and the Footstool, O You Who raise,

1015 upon him through whom You made my reflection clear for me, until I became among the enemies like an army,

1016 with a peace that brings my intention to You and to him, generously, and it arrives.

1017 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

1018 And grant me today perfection of intellect, and increase through my intellect, forever, the people of transmitted knowledge.

1019 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

1020 You have taken away what the Accursed slipped into it of his wiles, O Preventer Who repels him.

1021 Bless with a blessing and a peace that banish him himself toward other than my person, and guide

1022 my whole being toward You with good pleasure, without suffering and without aggression,

1023 upon him toward whom my intentions tend; and deeds are only by intentions (ḥadīth).

1024 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

1025 And repel all that has made for my side, of the harm of the claw and the harm of the fang,

1026 and the harm of the eye, of speech, and the harm of what has come or will come, and of evil and peril,

1027 toward others than me and other than what was chosen for me, O You Who by Your grace lead good things to me.

1028 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

PARTIE 20

Nuuru Daarayni 20

1029 You have shown me Your grace in my own soul and in others than me, O You Who guarded from what terrifies.

1030 Bless with a blessing that honours my side, with a peace that honours my life,

1031 upon him for whom my being is known, and teaching has yielded to me in love of him.

1032 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

1033 And preserve by his mighty standing my life from what does not please You, O You Who lengthen my life.

1034 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

1035 You have released me, You have made room for me: so accept my gratitude from me, O Granter of remembrance.

1036 Bless with a blessing and a peace without end, neither for it nor for it, upon him with whom has ended

1037 my journey to You, and he is Aḥmad, O You toward Whom I have turned, O Eternal Refuge (Aṣ-Ṣamad).

1038 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

1039 I have venerated Your noble Countenance forever by abandoning my relapse (into sin): so make my gladness perpetual.

1040 You have preserved my life from harm and turbidity, O You Who make the decree flow with glad tidings for me.

1041 Bless with a blessing and a peace that bear witness for me to my being truthful and make me happy, 1042 upon him who made me inherit the benefits, by leave of an Everlasting One Who never ceases to benefit.

1043 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

1044 And make my writing through him, Lord, with You the greatest good pleasure, and with Your host.

1045 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

1046 You have unveiled for me an unveiling that shows me what was hidden, and protected me from enemies and accusations.

1047 Bless with a blessing that unveils the secrets for me toward the Gardens, that bars the wicked

1048 from turning toward me with a refuge (against me), with a peace that bestows favours on me,

1049 upon him by whose mighty standing You came between — O Best of Him with Whom one converses intimately with ordered pearls —

1050 between me and whoever contends, O Subduer (Al-Qāhir) Who has no contender.

1051 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

1052 And accept from me, my King, my letters, leading to piety and recognised good.

1053 And efface the turning of idle talk and breach toward my life, O You Who decree for my gladness.

1054 And make Satan despair of turning toward me forever, O You toward Whom is my turning.

1055 And bar Your enemies from wanting a refuge that grieves me, O You Who protected me with favours.

1056 And make my letters abiding rewards, without end, ascending to the Gardens.

1057 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

1058 Toward others than me You have already taken away the Accursed, without returning him to me, O Helper, 1059 removing toward a direction other than mine all that grieves or harms, wherever it is known.

1060 Bless with a blessing and a peace that rise to the Throne and the Footstool, that at once give pleasure,

1061 upon him for whom are my pens and the ink, over a span of years, with a writing possessed of soundness,

1062 as worship for You and service for him, for the Countenance of Him Who preferred him over creation.

1063 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

1064 And reward him on my behalf with clear goods, O You Who through him perpetuated well-being for me.

1065 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O King (Al-Malik), O Holy (Al-Quddūs), O You Who honour me,

1066 You have protected me from enemies and sickness, and You make good pleasure eternal for me in my aim.

1067 And You have been for me with what perpetuates my gladness, glad tidings for angel and man.

1068 Bless with a blessing and a peace that endure as eternally as Your dominion and make all of me happy, 1069 upon the Prophet Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

1070 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O You Who are named Generous (Al-Karīm) and Mighty (Al-ʻAzīz),

1071 bless with a blessing and a peace by which You honour my side forever, and it is honoured,

1072 upon him by whose standing I have hoped for good from You, and that You withhold harm

1073 toward others than me, forever, through him, just as You made him an arbiter, entrusted with judgement.

1074 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

1075 And grant me keenness and sainthood, and soften for me, and make gentle for me every sign.

1076 And guard Your Book with my heart and my hand, and beautify me, and bestow the excellent on me.

1077 You have guided all of me with Your enabling grace, O All-Knowing (Al-ʿAlīm), O All-Aware (Al-Khabīr): my doubt has vanished.

1078 Grant me Your remembrance, bestow love on me and protect me with the best knowledge and soundness.

1079 Renew Islām through me; draw for me the beneficial sciences, O All-Aware, O All-Knowing.

1080 You have granted me the undertaking, Lord of the Hour, O You Who spared me the turbidities of the hour.

PARTIE 21

Nuuru Daarayni 21

1081 You have realised for me the undertaking in the sciences, O Giver of composition and teaching.

1082 Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O You Who are named All-Hearing (As-Samīʿ) and Answerer (Al-Mujīb),

1083 bless the servant, the Messenger and the Prophet, who preserved me and made clear for me the ropes of my tent, 1084 and grant peace upon him who removes trial toward other than my person, and has accepted my life.

1085 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

1086 And grant me keenness of intellect in good things, O You Who protected me with family and dwellings.

1087 Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O You Who are named Beautiful (Al-Jamīl) and Generous (Al-Karīm), 1088 bless with a blessing that beautifies my inward and my outward, and completes my intention,

1089 with a peace that makes ease eternal for me, and makes me forget yesterday through my today and tomorrow,

1090 without enemies, or toil, or reckoning, making my whole being the best reckoning (of reward with God),

1091 upon the intercessor possessed of beauty, Aḥmad, him whom my pen with my ink has praised.

1092 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

1093 And turn the turbidities and fears toward a direction other than mine, and the Impostor (ad-Dajjāl).

1094 Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O You Who are named Guardian (Al-Ḥafīẓ), the Raiser (Ar-Rāfiʿ),

1095 bless with a blessing that brings my wish to me without hardship: for You are the One Who brings,

1096 with a peace that heals the body for me, removing the envious toward a direction other than mine.

1097 O You Who lead to me what has protected from (every) annihilating (woe), and have led to me the good of the second Jumādā.

1098 Bless with a blessing from You, possessed of blessings, by which You turn toward other than my person the ruinous things, 1099 with a peace that makes the homeland good for me, and leads to me what widens the resting-place.

1100 upon him whom I have praised from the head of the sacred (months) (Muḥarram) to the sixth of the months (Jumādā II), and he is the one who was generous.

1101 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

1102 And give me mastery, and make (my state) clear, well pleased with me, and raise the pilgrimage on my behalf, fulfilling it.

1103 Give the Messenger of Allah — may Allah bless him — dominion over that by which his loftiness grows.

1104 Bless with a blessing and a peace on my behalf upon him, O All-Embracing (Al-Wāsi‘), and accept from me.

1105 Turn away toward other than the person of the best of humankind what grieves him, and put glad tidings in its place.

1106 Return to him what gladdens him and what almost escaped him of loftiness, where it is about to (escape).

1107 Increase his beauty, O Beautiful, and gather the wishes for him, and his adversary suppress for him.

1108 I have given the best of creation possession of a praise that abides as long as his grace, and he has granted precedence.

1109 I have made my service clear for the most excellent Prophet, and he preserved me and preserved what is in my tent.

1110 I have raised to Allah the Exalted, for a span, my hand, through His outpouring that He extended to me.

1111 Allah has returned to me of good things what almost escaped me; what makes things escape has not made for me.

1112 The Benefactor (An-Nāfiʿ) has drawn to me what benefits me, without harm, and raises me with the wishes.

1113 The Beautiful (Al-Jamīl) has beautified me with a beautifying that shows marvels to the one struck dumb, possessed of bewilderment.

1114 To Him be my gratitude forever over the months; and He has bestowed on me manifestation and purity.

1115 Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O You Who are named Appreciative (Ash-Shakūr), the Raiser (Ar-Rāfi‘), 1116 bless with a blessing that makes glad tidings eternal for me, that delivers to others than me the Nineteen (guardians of Hell),

1117 with a peace that banishes the Accursed toward others than us, so that we may worship the Helper,

1118 upon the Prophet and Messenger Aḥmad, O You Who through him drove grief toward others than me,

1119 upon his Family and his Companions; and take away every boastful rival toward others than me: let him go.

1120 And lead to me forever the mighty, the mightiest, O You Who through him disgraced whoever grew arrogant, 1121 without encounter (with evil) and without turbidity, O Lord of time, of creation and of decree.

1122 O You Who protected me from expulsion, from stratagem and delusion, as from gradual luring (istidrāj).

1123 Bless with a blessing that softens hearts for me, and leads to me curdled milk together with (fresh) milk,

1124 with a peace that drives what has grieved toward a direction other than mine, and whoever did evil,

1125 upon the brave one, possessed of the Companions, the Effacer (al-Māḥī), him whose love made lances needless.

1126 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

PARTIE 22

Nuuru Daarayni 22

1127 And take away Satan and the plots toward a direction other than mine, and spare all of me the plotter.

1128 And make the rest of my life a clear garden until my entry into the Garden.

1129 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O You Who are named Praiseworthy (Al-Ḥamīd) and Glorious (Al-Majīd),

1130 bless with a blessing possessed of eternal gladness, with a peace that guards for me my father

1131 from the narrowness of the grave and its torment together, (and) my mother, O Subduer Who repressed for me, 1132 upon the Messenger, Your servant, the bearer of glad tidings, chief of every angel and man.

1133 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

1134 And make through him this ordered poem the best worship, leading good to me.

1135 And accept it from me generously, by the standing of him who surpassed the creatures of God, Lord of time.

1136 And efface through him what grieved me in what has passed of my life, making my going forward clear for me.

1137 And make my tongue remembering like my heart, O Enricher by Your repelling and drawing.

1138 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O You Who are named Kind (Ar-Ra'ūf) and Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), 1139 bless with a blessing whose benefit is not cut off, upon him through whom harm to me is cut off,

1140 with a peace that makes my life grow for me with the best of good and the most exalted spoil,

1141 upon the means of access, the intercessor, the ladder, the Arab, the Hāshimite, the banner.

1142 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

1143 And guard Your Book with my heart and my hand and with my tongue, abiding with what most benefits.

1144 And protect my dwellings and my family, (I) reciting, and drive my adversaries toward a direction other than mine.

1145 O Allah, O All-Merciful, O Most Merciful, O You Who have been named "Sovereign" (Al-Malīk) and "King" (Al-Malik),

1146 Bless with a blessing that turns kings toward other than my harm; You have led dominion to me,

1147 with a peace that turns all people toward what gladdens all of me, and gather (good things) for me,

1148 upon him through whom You created all that You created, servant, Messenger, banner.

1149 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

1150 And bestow on Your servant and beloved, the intimate, the excellent that multiplies the little for him.

1151 And grant him the happiness of the two Abodes, O You Who spared him disgrace like the two fires.

1152 And grant him enabling grace in every refuge, and make his life for him the finest of favours.

1153 And grant him the months and the days as gladness for him, and protect him from widowhood.

1154 And turn the seasons and the years toward his gladness, and tame the disciplines for him.

1155 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O You Who are named Patient (Aṣ-Ṣabūr) and Forbearing (Al-Ḥalīm),

1156 bless with Your blessing that does not cross the mind of any eloquent one who may write,

1157 with a peace that the peace of creatures does not resemble, upon him who comprises the all-embracing words.

1158 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

1159 And enrich me, O my Benefactor, with gratitude, (freeing me) from patience, forbearance and all stratagem.

1160 And make by Your mighty grace my intention, like word and deed, the guidance of all of me.

1161 And free me from what necessitates patience and what necessitates forbearance, and reward my writing with thanks.

1162 And make my writing like the pilgrimage, the fast and the prayer; save my family.

1163 And put good pleasure in place of forbearance for me, and put benefit in place of injustice for me.

1164 And make the sweetness of worship, in my worship, put endurance to shame.

1165 And grant me aversion from sins, O You Who spared me the harm of every rebel.

1166 O You Who protected me from Your misleading enemies: to You be my gratitude before the day of Tarwiya (8 Dhū l-Ḥijja)

1167 and after it: so accept my gratitude from me, and raise it to the mighty Throne on my behalf.

1168 Raise my gratitude from me to the Footstool, by the sanctity of the lofty, most holy Name.

PARTIE 23

Nuuru Daarayni 23

1169 O You to Whom belong the magnifying and the sanctifying: through You Iblīs has made for others than us.

1170 O You to Whom belongs pre-eminence like dominion: You have preserved me from the harm of kings.

1171 O You to Whom belongs creation as the affairs belong to Him: You have spared me by grace the harm of every emir.

1172 O You Who through me benefit whoever visits: You have protected me, and no minister has harmed me.

1173 O You to Whom belongs "Be", and it is, O King: You have protected all of me from the hardships of the spiritual path.

1174 The enemies have known that I am with You, not with them, glad tidings for Your host.

1175 You made me patient (in abstaining) from the unlawful already before, and the temptation of people has vanished, and the fetter.

1176 You made me patient in the face of every hateful thing, when I was a stranger, and made the heart good.

1177 You made me patient (in abstaining) from all that does not benefit of permitted things, and I used to repel them.

1178 You made me patient in obeying Your command; You drove my enemies toward others than me by Your might.

1179 You subdued my soul for me, You subdued my desire for me, and evil and misguidance You drove toward others than me.

1180 From You is my provision toward the Gardens, with what You chose for me of favours.

1181 I have renounced the unlawful and the reprehensible, with a preservation from You, together with making them hateful.

1182 You drove toward others than me all in which there is no use, and (made) my life a leader toward good.

1183 You conveyed to me the joy of the pious, You protected me from the harm of the wicked.

1184 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O You Who are named All-Hearing (As-Samīʿ) and All-Knowing (Al-ʿAlīm),

1185 bless with a blessing that takes away illnesses toward others than us and sets the aims right,

1186 with a peace that sets hearts right and draws curdled milk and milk,

1187 upon him through whom You folded for me the distance of the spiritual path, O Possessor of favour.

1188 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

1189 And bear witness to my gratitude to You on the day of Tarwiya, O You Who gave me to drink of quenching outpourings,

1190 and before it and after it; and bear witness for me to the best of good, and lead Your good pleasure to me.

1191 And raise my letters with gratitude, O Appreciative, O Best of Him with Whom a servant converses intimately in gratitude.

1192 None but You can enumerate Your praise, O Everlasting Who made me abide, O Reckoner (Al-Muḥṣī).

1193 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O You Who are named Guardian (Al-Ḥafīẓ), the Keeper (Al-Ḥāfiẓ),

1194 bless with a blessing already clear of turbidity, O Creator by Whose leave the decree flows,

1195 with a peace that is only from You, by whose blessing You grant me "Be", and it is,

1196 upon him who removes the bringers of toil toward a direction other than mine, forever, like disgrace.

1197 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

1198 And guard Islām through me with a guarding that has never been for others than me, and be for me with "Be".

1199 And guard my six directions, O Guardian (Al-Ḥafīẓ), O You to Whom belong my meaning and the word.

1200 And guard in my breast the beneficial sciences, and make my life beneficial to the Prophet,

1201 may He bless him forever and grant him peace, He through Whom he taught my heart.

1202 And grant me memory without forgetting, and preserve my life through him from disobedience.

1203 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O You Who are named Rich (Al-Ghanī) and Enricher (Al-Mughnī),

1204 bless with a blessing that frees from Your enemies and from other than what You chose for me, O Enricher,

1205 with a peace that leads Your host to me, (I) a slave made rich by the Book with You, 1206 upon him by whose standing You spared me what has grieved and whoever did evil.

1207 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

1208 And grant me the veneration of all whose veneration is due, O You Who lead wonder to me.

1209 O You Who protected me from what I know, of what grieves me, and from what I do not know.

1210 Take away faults toward other than my person, and lead to my heart the outpouring and the mysteries.

1211 And grant me today, without despoiling, "Be", and it is; overcome my enemies for me.

1212 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O You Who are named Near (Al-Qarīb) and All-Hearing (As-Samī'),

PARTIE 24

Nuuru Daarayni 24

1213 bless with a blessing that surpasses intellects and sets right the rational and the transmitted,

1214 with a peace that grants us the Law (sharīʿa) with the Reality (ḥaqīqa), as a means

1215 to God, the Book and the Messenger, that grants me in this world and the next the best request,

1216 upon the Prophet and Messenger, the ladder, the Arab, the Hāshimite, the banner.

1217 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

1218 And grant me nearness, and hear my word with a hearing of acceptance, and gather good for me.

1219 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O You Who are named All-Knowing (Al-ʿAlīm), Knower (Al-ʿĀlim), 1220 bless with a blessing that takes away heedlessness toward other than my heart, that prevents setting,

1221 with a peace that lifts the veil and draws steadfastness and the gift,

1222 upon him who has already come, forever, between me and whoever refused to worship.

1223 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

1224 And grant me sound knowledge and righteous deeds that complete hope.

1225 And gather the wishes for me by the day of ʿArafa, and by the right of those who fast on it grant me gnosis.

1226 And spread over me the blessings of the sacred (months) and of all the months, and protect my sanctuary.

1227 And build for me the impregnable fortress, guarding the Remembrance through me, whether I reflect or utter.

1228 And grant me the affirmation of Oneness and the ḥadīth, and grant me exegesis and transmission (of ḥadīth).

1229 And grant me excellence in the disciplines, O Giver of the manifest and the hidden.

1230 And make the Truth manifest through my writing and the tongue, O You Who bestow triumph and fair things on me.

1231 O Effacer of afflictions and turbidities, O Giver of neighbours after the abode.

1232 Bless with a blessing and a peace by which You hear my gratitude and gather the wishes for me,

1233 through it, upon the servant, the Messenger, the most beneficial, O You through whom my hand stretches toward You.

1234 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

1235 And illumine the months and seasons for me, as You granted me arrival.

1236 And for me illumine every day and year, O You Who are exalted above sleep and slumber (Qur'ān 2:255).

1237 And free me, with memory, from forgetting; You have bestowed on me the months and vision.

1238 And free me, with reward, from reckoning, O You Who lead all of me with reliance (on You).

1239 And make the soul good and make the heart good for me, and bring the wishes into being for me unto the Gardens.

1240 O Sender-down, You granted me dwelling, and guarded for me the neighbours and the place

1241 from everything unbefitting my side, O You Who are worthy of my praise and my gratitude.

1242 Bless with a blessing that makes the lawful firm with me and bars misguidance from me,

1243 with a peace that banishes evils and shows every misguidance its retreat,

1244 upon the Prophet and Messenger, the most God-fearing, O You Who by his standing opened what was sealed (cf. Qur'ān 21:30).

1245 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

1246 And make by his mighty standing my poem, O You Who protected me from what drives one to suppress anger, 1247 with You, faith and Islām together, the finest excellence (iḥsān); and gather the wishes for me.

1248 And with You make it treasures for me, O You Who bring increase and the hidden treasure.

1249 And turn back, by the right of Your noble Countenance, O Giver of permanence and honour, 1250 toward other than my person whoever has made for me with harm, and protect me from solecisms.

1251 And preserve, for Your noble Countenance, my creed, word and deed from the people of censure.

1252 And make, for Your noble Countenance, all of me Your highest good pleasure, multiplying my little for me.

1253 O Allah, O All-Knowing (Al-ʿAlīm), O All-Aware (Al-Khabīr), O You through Whom ruin has not reached me,

1254 bless with a blessing that repels every evil toward a direction other than mine and raises my striving,

1255 with a peace that guards my side from the harm of the claw and the harm of the fang,

1256 upon him who granted me the Book and turned reproach toward others than me.

1257 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

PARTIE 25

Nuuru Daarayni 25

1258 And grant me, by the right of the day of ʿArafa and by the right of those who fast on it, the highest gnosis.

1259 O You Who granted me the months and the years, and toward others than me drove what brings moaning,

1260 bless with a blessing that brings the wishes into being for me and leads ʿArafāt and Minā to me,

1261 with a peace that gathers benefits for me through Him Who never ceases to benefit,

1262 upon him whose service raised me without harm and overthrew whoever hated me.

1263 O Allah, O All-Embracing (Al-Wāsiʿ), O Great (Al-Kabīr), O You to Whom belong the mightiest and the magnifying, 1264 bless with a blessing that takes away every straitness toward others than me, forever, and it goes,

1265 with a peace that draws clarity, truthfulness for me, safety and fidelity,

1266 upon him whose praise by me and the blessings upon him have removed lapses toward others than me.

1267 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

1268 And raise my word with gratitude to You, Lord, O You Who efface my exile and my wandering.

1269 You have freed me, through You, from (false) lords, and through Muḥammad from secondary causes,

1270 and through Your Book from fabricating words, and through steadfastness from changing,

1271 and through Your guidance from the guidance of others than You, O Enricher Who poured Your bounty upon me.

1272 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O You Who are named Generous (Al-Karīm), All-Embracing (Al-Wāsiʿ), 1273 bless with a blessing that makes generosity eternal for me, forever, that unties what has been tied,

1274 from all that grieves or harms, O You through Whom no harm has made for me,

1275 with a peace that turns evils toward other than my person, through You, and misfortune,

1276 upon him whose servant You made me, through him, and led pre-eminence to me

1277 by his standing, and guarded my secrets for me through him, without stratagem or delusion.

1278 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

1279 And break the customs for me in things, O You Who spared me the heat with shades.

1280 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O First (Al-Awwal), O Last (Al-Ākhir), O You Who honour me, 1281 bless with a blessing that purifies my life of what is not good, that makes all of me skilful,

1282 with a peace that leads to me one who silences the haters and deniers: truly he has silenced them.

1283 upon Your noble Prophet, my protector, he who has none in creation to match him.

1284 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

1285 And grant me today, without despoiling, my being the light of all the seekers (of knowledge),

1286 and of all the worshippers and ascetics; and grant me precise recitation (tajwīd) with diligence,

1287 and (make me) a proof for whoever befriends me, and drive toward others than me whoever has hated me.

1288 And make my compositions lights that illumine, radiant, by the sanctity of the illumining Light.

1289 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

1290 And forever bless him with peace on my behalf, as You gave me possession of the best speech.

1291 And make through him my poem with You abiding righteous (deeds), ascending to the Gardens (cf. Qur'ān 18:46).

1292 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O You Who are named Beautiful (Al-Jamīl), All-Embracing (Al-Wāsi'),

1293 bless with a blessing that beautifies for me all that You chose for me with You, O Best Hearer,

1294 with a peace that increases my gladness, upon the announced (Prophet), the bearer of glad tidings.

1295 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

1296 And toward others than me drive the toil of this world and the harm of the Other; You have granted the second (reward).

1297 To You be my gratitude, without ingratitude, O You Who protected me from loss.

1298 To You be my gratitude for the edifice, O You Who protected me from toil.

1299 To You be my gratitude for the lawful, O You Who protected me from destitution and misguidance.

1300 To You be my gratitude for those who prostrated, O You Who drove toward others than me (whoever) does not prostrate.

1301 To You be my gratitude for those who bowed, O You Who drove toward others than me whoever does not bow.

1302 To You be my gratitude for the homelands, O You Who protected me from Satan.

1303 To You be my gratitude for the passage, O You Who made it a passage of piety.

1304 To You be my gratitude for the good things, in secret, in the open and in the dwellings.

1305 To You be my gratitude for writing, O Sender-down, Who granted me a Book.

1306 To You be my gratitude for the letters that draw piety and recognised good.

1307 To You be my gratitude for composition, O Giver of secrets and of the familiar.

1308 To You be my gratitude for drawing near, O Effacer of aggression and exile.

1309 To You be my gratitude, Lord, from Muḥarram to the close of the Pilgrimage (Dhū l-Ḥijja), the close of the sacred (months).

PARTIE 26

Nuuru Daarayni 26

1310 I have thanked You, O Allah, with ink, O Giver of help and love.

1311 I have thanked You, O Allah, with pens, O Giver of the most excellent speech.

1312 I have thanked You, O Allah, with prayer, O Effacer of the hardship of the haters.

1313 I have thanked You, O Allah, with fasting, O You Who protected me from widowhood.

1314 I have thanked You, O Allah, with vigil, O Witness for me today of the fast.

1315 I have thanked You, O Allah, with movement, O Giver of what puts the battlefield to shame.

1316 I have thanked You, O Allah, with stillness, O Sender-down Who bestowed calm on me.

1317 To You be my gratitude for the days, O Possessor of opposition (to enemies) and of vigil.

1318 To You be my gratitude for every year, O You Who are exalted above sleep and slumber.

1319 To You be my gratitude without end, O You toward Whom my journey has its end.

1320 O our Lord, bless with an immense blessing him through whom my whole being has grown.

1321 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

1322 And raise my striving through him with an ascending gratitude, O Raiser Who never ceases to be Everlasting.

1323 And gather my letters and bless them, toward You, the manifest and the hidden.

1324 You made my heart clear, setting right and directing; through You (You made clear) my tongue; You led succour to me.

1325 You have led my limbs to righteous deeds, completing my hopes.

1326 My heart intends good, and the tongue: toward it tend the remembrances and fair things.

1327 You have not forgotten me, Lord, nor do I forget You, and You have not turned toward me whoever forgets You.

1328 O Allah, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), O You Who are named Beautiful (Al-Jamīl) and Appreciative (Ash-Shakūr), 1329 bless with a blessing and a peace without end, upon him who was carried by night to the Boundary (Qurʾān 17:1; 53:14).

1330 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

1331 And make the letters of this prelude accepted, thankfully received, venerated.

1332 And in the heart of the Chosen and in the hearts of his Companions make me a joy possessed of wealth.

1333 O Enricher, O Gatherer (Al-Jāmiʿ): You have enriched with what You gathered for me, as You have satisfied.

1334 Bless with a blessing that gathers good things, putting the "Dalāʾil al-Khayrāt" to shame.

1335 upon him who led to me, on Friday, what was chosen for me, as a wish, and gathered it.

1336 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

1337 And make through him the months and the days witnesses for me; protect me from widowhood.

1338 O our Lord, O our Lord, O our Lord, O our Lord, O our Lord, O our Beloved!

1339 Grant me soundness and grant me well-being and protection, and make my letters healing.

1340 And make my recitation and my writing the dearest, among acts of worship, to You, O Beloved.

1341 And protect me from Your stratagem, O All-Knowing, and protect me from delusion, O Forbearing.

1342 And protect me from evil decree forever, O Best Worshipped One, Who has been worshipped with love.

1343 Your love for me has already removed corruption toward other than my person, and repelled the envious

1344 toward others than me and toward other than what a Generous One chose for me, Whose love has already been decreed.

1345 O our Lord, O Lord of lands and servants, O You Who disgraced whoever sought my harm and destroyed him.

1346 O our Lord, O Lord of the lands and the heaven, O Everlasting Who have already traced my happiness.

1347 O our Lord, O Creator of the two Abodes, O You Who protected me from the two disgraces.

1348 O our Lord, O You Who banish the enemies toward a direction other than mine, protecting from sickness.

1349 O our Lord, O You to Whom belong dominion together with praise, O You Who gathered my wishes for me.

1350 Bless with a blessing that banishes Satan toward other than what You chose for me as homelands,

1351 with a peace that makes the Accursed despair of me and of harming my family, O Helper, 1352 upon the Prophet and Messenger Aḥmad, he whose mission to creation has been praised.

1353 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

1354 And with my writing gladden Your host, that is, abiding righteous (deeds) with You.

1355 O Sender-down Who made my homelands good for me, O Protector from the wiles of Satan.

1356 Bless with a blessing that draws succour to me, with a peace that perpetuates the count,

1357 upon the Hāshimite Prophet, the banner, he whose like has not been known among creation.

1358 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

1359 And bear witness for me forever that I am well pleased with Him Who protected my body from my illnesses.

1360 And bear witness for me forever that You are dearer to me than any other, and the Prophet, after, the dearest.

1361 You granted me sincerity in affirming Oneness, establishing the mission of the Unique (Prophet).

1362 You granted me, in what has passed of my time, what perpetuates my glad tidings and my safety.

1363 Your host accompanied me in the time of striving, and they removed the enemies toward others than me with diligence.

1364 You have removed Iblīs and whoever follows him toward a direction other than mine: for You are God.

1365 There have not made for me envious ones or unbelievers, nor hypocrites or (perils of) journeys.

1366 Hopes come to me from You forever, and from Your Prophet, the Messenger Aḥmad.

1367 So bless forever, greeting with peace, upon him, in the Family and the Companions, and increase his loftiness through me.

1368 Increase for the Prophet what gladdens him and what benefits him in me, and grant me what is most upright.

1369 Grant the Prophet, beginning and seal, the most abiding glad tidings, without closing.

PARTIE 27

Nuuru Daarayni 27

1370 I praise the Enricher, exalted above slumber, and He has been for me in every month and year.

1371 I addressed Him on land and sea, in secret and openly, together with the faithful guide.

1372 And I said: O Lord of creation, O our Lord, O our Lord, O our Lord, O our Lord!

1373 O our Lord, bless with a blessing surpassing every blessing, worthy of a chief,

1374 with a peace no peace can match, upon my means of access to You, the effacer of blame.

1375 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

1376 And write for him today the glad tidings of the Generous with You, O Lord, an increase that does not depart.

1377 O our Lord, bless with an excellent blessing, with a peace that hastens with the wishes, 1378 upon him to whom I have given my ink for a long time, with the clarity of my love.

1379 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

1380 And from my ink lead away from him what has grieved (him), O You toward Whom I turn the composing.

1381 O our Lord, bless with a pure blessing, with a peace that subdues Your enemies for me,

1382 upon him to whom I have given my pens for a long time, with the most beneficial words.

1383 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

1384 And from my pens lead glad tidings to him, O You Who sent him to us as a bearer of glad tidings.

1385 O our Lord, bless with a radiant blessing, with a peace that visits with Your good pleasure,

1386 upon him to whom I have given my paper, with services joined to (those of) Awṭās.

1387 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

1388 And from my papers lead the aim to him, O You Who spared me Your enemies and sickness.

1389 O our Lord, bless with an ascending blessing, with a peace abiding with what is pleasing, 1390 upon him whose service has drawn out of me all my faults together, and they went out.

1391 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

1392 And lead joy to him from my services, O Giver Who granted me piety.

1393 O our Lord, bless with a blessing that removes every complaint, with a peace that pleases,

1394 upon him whom I have pleased for years, striving, exiled, suspected.

1395 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

1396 And lead to him from my services what gladdens, O You Who spared me whoever slandered and was deluded.

1397 And preserve by Your noble Countenance my life from hateful things, and set my affair right.

1398 And make my heart a treasury of the beneficial sciences: for You are the Giver, the All-Knowing.

1399 And make my limbs homelands of Your guidance unto the Gardens, safe from Your enemies.

1400 O our Lord, bless with a blessing that draws to Your good pleasure, that overcomes Your enemies,

1401 upon him who has made me, with him, like his Companions, one who blesses him.

1402 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

PARTIE 28

Nuuru Daarayni 28

1403 And lead to him from my life what surpasses the wishes, and with You make me the joy of the trustworthy.

1404 O our Lord, bless with a blessing encompassing all the blessings, perfect,

1405 with a peace that never ceases to grow, protecting my sides from what harms me,

1406 upon Your intimate, the beloved, Your servant, our Aḥmad, the Chosen, the light of Your host, 1407 upon his Family and his Companions; and make all my service a good pleasure that is fulfilled.

1408 O our Lord, bless with a blessing gathering every blessing, suppressing whoever possesses oppression,

1409 with a peace whose growth is not cut off, upon him through whom harm to me is cut off.

1410 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

1411 And raise to You all the blessings of today, and keep me far from enemies and blame.

1412 O our Lord, bless with a blessing that comes between me and roaming turbidities,

1413 with a peace that draws to me what I love, removing toward others than us what we do not love,

1414 upon my means of access to You, Aḥmad, the Family and the Companions; and make my life praiseworthy.

1415 O our Lord, bless with a blessing that takes away every harm, with a peace that brings

1416 to us happiness, gain and abundance, O Enricher Who has been for me with plenty,

1417 upon him through whom You lead the aim to me, without enemies, or harm, or sickness.

1418 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

1419 O our Lord, O You Who are exalted above slumber, bless on my behalf every month and year,

1420 with Your peace, him whose intercession is accepted, him who led to me what puts every cannon to shame.

1421 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

1422 And write for him, in all that has issued from me of services, a sweetness without turbidity.

1423 And make my blessing and my peace the best worship for You, that makes provisions clear.

1424 And make my life a worship that lasts for him, glad tidings that put the servant forward.

1425 And raise to Your Throne and the Footstool this poem of mine, by Your most holy Name.

1426 O Allah, O One (Al-Aḥad), You are the Eternal Refuge (Aṣ-Ṣamad), O Raiser of the heaven without pillars (Qur'ān 13:2), 1427 bless, by the right of "Say: He, Allah, is One" (Qur'ān 112:1), my means of access, Your unique Prophet.

1428 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

1429 And grant him, O Lord, from the day of Sunday, the highest glad tidings with everyone.

1430 And make my writing for him privileges and sustenance, and an adornment that belittles the ruby.

1431 O our Lord, bless with a blessing with peace him who effaced toil and blame,

1432 and led me to You, O Lord, through You, and You led me through You to him, with Your love.

1433 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

1434 And grant him, O Lord, on Monday, what surpasses the wishes and needs, from two Bestowers, 1435 without affliction and without turbidity, O You Who spared me the turbidities of decree.

PARTIE 29

Nuuru Daarayni 29

1436 O our Lord, bless with a blessing that wards off all corruptions that assail suddenly

1437 toward others than us, before they make (for us), O You with Whom my harm has been effaced,

1438 with a peace that keeps my life sound from all through which the darkness comes,

1439 upon the Prophet and Messenger Aḥmad, the Family and the Companions; and make my writing praiseworthy.

1440 And make all my letters worship, O You to Whom belong the servants and worship.

1441 And grant the best of creation, in my writing, glad tidings, O Creator Who made him the best of humankind.

1442 And bestow on him, O Lord, on Tuesday, what belittles the quarter and the third,

1443 of what gladdens forever and benefits, O You Who through him repel harm toward others.

1444 O our Lord, bless with a blessing whose equal has not been seen, and whose like is not seen

1445 among the creatures, upon him who has been preferred over all of them together, and is pre-eminent.

1446 with a peace that is not seen nor has been seen by creation, upon him who has been made

1447 a light for them, Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

1448 And grant him, Lord, on Wednesday, O Everlasting Who quench and satisfy, 1449 that for which every angel and man holily envies him, of increase and glad tidings.

1450 And make my letters delights for him without end, in the measure of the Essence.

1451 O our Lord, bless with a clear blessing, that heals the breasts of a believing people (Qur'ān 9:14),

1452 with a peace that turns corruptions toward others than us, and misery, and what is corrupt,

1453 upon him to whom my ink and my pen have given glad tidings for years, with my love.

1454 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

1455 And on Thursday grant him what surpasses the wishes, O You Who made him the trustee of the trustworthy.

1456 O our Lord, bless with a blessing that takes away those who intended my harm, all together, and they go

1457 toward others than me, forever, with a peace that drives away toward others than us those in whom is darkness,

1458 upon him who turned the host of Allah, the victorious, against the people of frivolities;

1459 and they removed the unbelievers toward others than us, as he effaced expulsion and (forced) journeys.

1460 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

1461 And threaten the enemies with a lasting threat, that turns them toward other than Your servant, the servant.

1462 And grant him, O Lord, on Friday, what surpasses the wishes, together with what it has gathered.

1463 O our Lord, bless with an abiding blessing, with a peace that leads precedence to me,

1464 upon him who granted me the Book and does not turn reproach toward me.

1465 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

1466 And grant him, O Lord, on Saturday, and every day, (what is) flourishing like a shoot.

1467 And make this blessing of mine with him the best blessing with which he has been blessed.

1468 And write for him through it the glad tidings of Sunday, and grant him the days from Sunday on.

PARTIE 30

Nuuru Daarayni 30

1469 O my master, O Chosen, O Possessor of bounty, may He bless you Who guided you as a support,

1470 with the purest blessing and peace, that bestows on me steadfastness and less sleep,

1471 in the Family, the Companions and the followers; and may He increase me in knowledge with following.

1472 O my master, O Elect, O Possessor of the heights, may He bless you Who is exalted and lofty,

1473 with the purest blessing and peace beyond number, that drives lasting succour to me,

1474 in the Family and the Companions; and may He hold back from me what is forbidden, and bestow on me the gaze toward You.

1475 O my master, O Chosen, O Possessor of guidance, may He bless you of Whom you asked guidance,

1476 with the purest blessing, that drives to me all that I have desired forever, greeting with peace,

1477 with a peace upon all the Family and your Companions, the pearls and gems.

1478 O my master, O Followed One, O you who journeyed by night, may He bless you Who called you to the night journey,

1479 with the purest blessing, that bestows on me triumph, that I may be your neighbour without journeying,

1480 with a peace upon all the Family and the Companions, with whom tomorrow shall be my destination.

1481 O my master, O best of those sent to the creation of the God of the worlds, Possessor of favours,

1482 may He bless you and grant you peace forever, with the Family, the Companions and whoever devoted himself to worship,

1483 with the purest blessing from Him — exalted be He — with peace, that makes my Ṭūbā (Touba) good for me, with the Abode of Peace.

1484 May your Lord, the All-Hearing, bless you and grant you peace, with all your Family and the Companions,

1485 with the purest blessing that bestows your guidance on me, with a peace that subjects your enemies to me.

1486 O best of every begetter and what he begot (Qur'ān 90:3), may He bless you Who is exalted above having a child,

1487 greeting with peace, together with the elect worshippers, as He removed toward others than me (evil) and my woe,

1488 without return to me, unto the Gardens; and through you He has made my heart clear forever.

1489 O best of those sent to the best community (Qur'ān 3:110), may He bless you and spare you distress

1490 a Lord Generous, Beneficent, Who is majestic, and Who has exalted your immense rank,

1491 greeting you with peace beyond all number, with the Family and the Companions; and He has increased my succour.

1492 O you for whose truthfulness the moon was split (Qur'ān 54:1), may He bless you Who commanded following you,

1493 greeting you with peace with honour, in the Family and the Companions, without break;

1494 and through you He forgave all my sins, and expiated for me all that was upon me.

1495 O Chosen, O Selected, O Elect, may He bless you Who guided you and elected (you),

1496 greeting you with peace in the noble Family and your radiant Companions; and He has led the aim to me,

1497 and toward others than me He held back prohibition and misery, and what deprives me of ascent.

1498 And He bestowed on me abundance of recitation, remembrance and prayer, with sweetness.

1499 And He bestowed on me knowledge and deeds, refinement and perfection.

1500 O my master, O my longing, O my shield against every evil forever, O my garden,

1501 may a Benefactor bless you Who bestowed graces through you upon us and perpetuated the graces,

1502 and all that you longed for He led to you without hardship, and it yielded.

1503 greeting you with peace, O Chosen, and He drove to me all that I choose, 1504 in this world and the next, through you, (making me) possessed of safety from the reckoning and from blame.

1505 And He made time good for me as I love, and held back from me forever what I do not love.

1506 And through you He has been for me and drove my need to me, until I become the gladness of non-Arabs and Arabs.

1507 And He joined me to the trustworthy Companions, and led the wishes to me without reckoning.

1508 And He remitted my sin and effaced my faults, and tamed for me every ungrateful one who bolted.

1509 And He granted me that this poem be a healing for me and for the community, wherever it is unveiled.

1510 And He held back from me all calamities through it, and drove to me through it the distinctions.

1511 For He — exalted be He — has power over that, and is worthy to answer the call of the caller (Qurʾān 2:186).

1512 I addressed Him with gratitude and praise, since through you He has banished my toil from me.

1513 O You for Whom asking any other than Him is for me misguidance, since You have been for me with generosity, O Possessor of majesty!

1514 O Allah, O Near (Al-Qarīb), O Answerer (Al-Mujīb), bless him through whom You answer, 1515 our master possessed of miracles, with peace, with the Family and the Companions, who removes the darkness.

1516 And be for me forever, and be with me, and be for me the One Who drives beyond my aim, with "Be".

1517 And make by his standing my life clear for You, through him, with abundant rewards.

نُورُ الدَّارَيْنِ

Nuuru Daarayni

اَلْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ الَّذِي يُصَلِّي ۞ عَلَى النَّبِيِّ الْمُنْتَقَى الْمُصَلَّى

« Louange à Allah, qui bénit le Prophète élu, celui qui prie, »

« Nuuru Daarayni » est un Xassida de Cheikh Ahmadou Bamba Khadimou Rassoul, guide spirituel et fondateur de Touba. Cette édition réunit ses 1517 bayits, répartis en 30 parties, en arabe vocalisé, avec leur translittération et leur traduction.

ENGLISH

KIRAAM

Bibliothèque des Xassidas de Serigne Touba · lecture et PDF gratuits