تَيْسِيرُ الْحَسِيرِ

Taysirul Hasiru

5 PARTIES · 295 VERS

Cheikh Ahmadou Bamba
Khadimou Rassoul · Serigne Touba

KIRAAM

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَٰنِ الرَّحِيمِ

تَيْسِيرُ الْحَسِيرِ

Taysirul Hasiru

يَااللَّهُ يَامَنْ لَّآإِلَاهَ غَيْرُهُ

✦ ✦ ✦

Œuvre de Cheikh Ahmadou Bamba Khadimou Rassoul

5 parties · 295 vers · mètre Rajas

English translation only

Édition Kiraam · Textes issus du « Khassida Dataset » de Daour (github.com/DaurDiop/khassida_dataset, licence MIT).

Diffusion libre et gratuite. Toute erreur de saisie peut être signalée à Kiraam.

PARTIE 1

Taysirul Hasiru 1

1. O Allah, O You besides Whom there is no god, O You Whose good has come to me without evil,

2. bless, grant peace and bless forever the one You named Muḥammad,

3. his Family, his Companions and the prophets; and accept with thanks these introductions, O my Lord.

4. And he is the one You named "the Beginning" (al-Badʾ), O You Who accepted, by Your Name, my beginning.

5. O Allah, O You besides Whom there is no god, O You Whose good has come to me without harm,

6. bless, grant peace and bless forever him whose pre-eminence has appeared from You,

7. and he is the one You named "the Splendour" (al-Bahāʾ), and the Family and the Companions, without end.

8 And be my Protector by the right of the formula "I seek refuge in Allah" (the ʿadhbala), and spread over us the blessings of the Basmala.

9 And bless, O All-Merciful (Ar-Raḥmān), and grant peace upon the Prophet, beloved of every Muslim,

10 and he is the one You named "the Illumining" (al-Muḍīʾ), and the Family, the Companions and whoever illumines.

11 And spread over me the blessings of the Fātiḥa, and make my pens the best opening door.

12 And bless, O Most Merciful (Ar-Raḥīm), and grant peace upon him through whom You dispelled the darknesses,

13 and he is the one You named "the Radiance" (aḍ-Ḍiyāʾ), and the Family and the Companions possessed of modesty.

14 And spread over me the blessings of (the sūra) al-Baqara, O You Who turn Your Saqar toward others than me,

15 and other than it, of every gate of the Fire, of ignominy, loss and dishonour.

16 And bless, O King (Al-Malik), and grant peace upon him to whom I gave glad tidings with my pen,

17 and he is the one You named "the Refuge" (al-Maljaʾ), and the Family and the Companions; and reward my taking refuge with thanks.

18 And spread over me the blessings of Āl ʿImrān, in the present and in the final outcome,

19 without affliction and without turbidity, O Lord of decree, of creation and of predestination.

20 And bless, O Holy (Al-Quddūs), with peace, the Prophet, the city of knowledge,

21 and he is the one You named "the Healing" (ash-Shifāʾ), and the Family and the Companions possessed of fidelity.

22 And grant me, by the sūra an-Nisāʾ (Women), Your being for me in the morning and the evening,

23 and the blessings of night and day, without delusion or rebuke,

24 and protection from harm; and reward this poem with thanks, and illumine my thoughts.

25 And bless, O Peace (As-Salām), and grant peace upon him through whom You loosed my distress,

26 and he is called "the Possessor of the mantle", and the Family and the Companions who remove sickness.

27 And spread over me the blessings of (the sūra) al-Mā'ida, and make my life, O Appreciative, a benefit.

28 And bless, O Giver of security (Al-Mu'min), with peace, the Prophet of Allah, possessed of teaching,

29 and he is called "the Possessor of the Banner", and the Family and the Companions, alike.

30 And grant me, by the sūra al-An'ām, Your being for me with bounty and grace.

31 And bless with peace, O Guardian Overseer (Al-Muhaymin), him who after the supplication says "āmīn",

32 and he is the leader of the prophets, that is, the chief of them all, and they together are radiant heads,

33 his Family, his Companions, the believing men and the believing women, O Beloved of the submissive.

34 And make eternal for me the favours of the noble and others, by the sūra al-Aʿrāf.

35 And write for the best of creation, the Chosen, on my behalf, wishes that last in concealment.

36 And bless, O Mighty (Al-ʿAzīz), and grant peace upon him who surpassed the noble as a banner,

37 and he is the orator of the prophets, and the Family and the Companions, in the present and the final outcome.

38 And grant me, by the sūra al-Anfāl, an opening bearing glad tidings, without closing.

39 And bless, O Compeller (Al-Jabbār), with peace, him whom my pens have gladdened,

40 and he is the best of all the prophets, and his Family, his Companions and the Followers.

41 And spread over me the blessings of (the sūra) at-Tawba, without harm, or enemies, or sin.

42 O Supreme in Greatness (Al-Mutakabbir), perpetually bless, greeting with peace, the lover, the intimate,

43 the seal of all the prophets without exception, and the Family and the Companions; and lead piety to me.

44 And grant me, by the right of (the sūra) Yūnus, the aim, and be for me without harm and without break.

45 And bless, O Creator (Al-Khāliq), and grant peace upon Your beloved, the intimate, the banner,

46 and he is the prophet of prophets, the host, and the Family and the Companions, O You Who host,

47 without movement or roaming, O You Who by abiding effaced its wandering.

48 And grant me, by the right of (the sūra) Hūd, all that I want from You as a ladder to the Gardens.

49 And bless, O Originator (Al-Bāriʾ), and grant peace upon him whom You taught, and he knew,

50 and he is the wealthy, and he is the one cleared of faults, and he is the bold,

51 his Family and his Companions; and grant me, by the right of (the sūra) Yūsuf, the wishes, without fear.

52 Bless and grant peace, O Fashioner (Al-Muṣawwir), upon him through whom the sūras came to us,

53 from You: he is the Light that is not extinguished; and the Family and the Companions; and repel whoever would extinguish (it).

54 And grant me, by the sūra ar-Raʿd, safety from enemies and the hardships of time.

55 And bless, O All-Forgiving (Al-Ghaffār), and grant peace upon him who gave glad tidings to whoever learned,

56 the Chosen, the Elect, the Exalted, and the Family and the Companions, O You Who adorned.

57 And grant me composition and the gift of making understood, and blessing in all of me, by (the sūra) Ibrāhīm.

58 And bless, O Subduer (Al-Qahhār), and grant peace upon him who dispels the darkness with my pen,

59 the Well-Pleasing, the purest, the purified, the most God-fearing, O You Who by his standing opened what was sealed.

PARTIE 2

Taysirul Hasiru 2

60 And guard the Remembrance through me and multiply my reward, in the present and the future, by the right of (the sūra) al-Ḥijr.

61 And bless, O Bestower (Al-Wahhāb), and grant peace upon him who drove pain toward others than me,

62 through You, as a reward from You, O Generous, and from him; and gratitude through him I long for.

63 the firmest handhold (Qur'ān 2:256), the pure, the highest, O You Who guided him as a guide and raised him.

64 and the Family and the Companions, by the right of (the sūra) an-Naḥl, O You Who protect from what brings drought.

65 And grant, by this poem, O Lord of humankind, to the master of humankind the finest glad tidings.

66 And make it a key of good things and of the aim, and the best reward and good pleasure without break.

67 And bless, O Provider (Ar-Razzāq), and grant peace upon him through whom I lead the learned

68 to the Straight Path with a leading that drives away every averse one with a driving.

69 And he is the Beloved, the good, the nobly descended, our master the purest, he is the well-related.

70 and the Family and the Companions; and by the Night Journey (al-Isrāʾ) grant me to be the gladness of every beholder,

71 without roaming or tremor, or exile, and bestow hospitality.

72 Grant me that provision be a guide to the best of the Gardens, possessed of safety and favours.

73 And write for me the rewards and clarity in all things, and spare me harshness.

74 And bless, O Opener (Al-Fattāḥ), and grant peace upon him through whom You spared me whoever wronged

75 already before, by his standing; and You led safety to me, and toward others than me goes the straitness of time.

76 And he is the Penitent, the Near, the Watchful; and he is the Answering, the Answered, the Chief.

77 his Family and his Companions; and be for me, by the sūra al-Kahf, and illumine all of me.

78 And bless with peace, O Opener, him whose mark is the Key (al-Miftāḥ),

79 the responsive, the noble-minded, and he is the companion, and his radiant Family, like whoever keeps (him) company.

80 And spread over me the blessings of (the sūra) Maryam, and make my outpourings put the steady rains to shame.

81 And bless, O All-Knowing (Al-ʿAlīm), with peace, him who was sent with teaching,

82 and he is Abū ṭ-Ṭayyib and the physician, O Everlasting toward Whom the intelligent tends.

83 his Family and his Companions; and the Remembrance, by the right of (the sūra) Ṭā Hā, grant me, and gratitude.

84 And grant everyone who has attached himself to me a lasting happiness, O my Lord.

85 And grant me a forgiveness whose like has not been preceded, and be for me with a fragrance.

86 And forgive my two parents and forgive all who have attached themselves to me, by grace, O All-Hearing.

87 And be pleased with the noble Companions, then with the composer of this poem, Lord, wherever he has appeared.

88 And forgive every believing man and woman, and lead them to wishes, for an assiduous gratitude.

89 And forgive every Muslim man and woman, and grant them from You good pleasure and mercy.

90 And forgive every doer of good, man and woman, and convey to them an increase of good deeds.

91 And bless, O Withholder (Al-Qābiḍ), and grant peace upon the Prophet and Messenger, the ladder,

92 that is, the possessor of the staff, the rider of the noble (camel), O You Who through him lead to me the best marvel,

93 his Family and his Companions, O my Lord; and spread over me the blessings of the Prophets (sūra al-Anbiyāʾ).

94 And forever bless them with peace, in whoever conformed to them without blame.

95 And make, by his mighty standing, this poem dearer to You than mighty acts of worship.

96 And bless, O Expander (Al-Bāsiṭ), and grant peace upon the Arab Prophet, the banner,

97 and he is the noble and the elect, he through whom the nobles have made for my gladness,

98 he is the refined, he is the selected, and the Family, the Companions and whoever is chosen.

99 And grant me, by the Pilgrimage (sūra al-Ḥajj), without tremor, from You, wishes through the best of the revealed verses.

100 And bless, O Withholder, and grant peace upon him through whom You dispelled the darknesses,

101 that is, the remover of distresses, the raiser of ranks, O you through whom He has written my being your servant,

102 his Family, his Companions and the believers; and spread over me the blessings of the Believers (sūra al-Muʾminūn).

103 And bless, O Exalter (Ar-Rāfiʿ), and grant peace upon him through whom You effaced my pain,

104 without its ever being confirmed again, as You effaced what draws misfortune.

105 that is, the glory of the Arabs, the foremost of the Arabs, the most eloquent of the Arabs, the most precious of the Arabs,

106 and the Family and the Companions, by the right of (the sūra) an-Nūr, O Effacer of denial and dishonour.

107 And bless, O Honourer (Al-Muʿizz), with peace, him through whom my teaching has become clear,

108 and he is Your shining, piercing star (Qurʾān 86:3), and he is the succeeded, the precious, the Last (al-ʿĀqib),

109 and the Family and the Companions possessed of certainty; and be for me by the sanctity of the Criterion (sūra al-Furqān).

110 And bless, O Humiliator (Al-Mudhill), and grant peace upon the Messenger of Allah, the light of the learned, 111 the victorious star, the revered pole (quṭb), the watchful, the inspirer of longing, the generous, the meteor.

112 And grant me, by the Poets (sūra ash-Shuʿarāʾ), what I want, O You Who spared me the rebel before his intent.

113 And make my letters above every deed that is righteous, O You Who lead my hope to me.

114 And bless, O All-Hearing (As-Samīʿ), O All-Seeing (Al-Baṣīr), him to whom the victories came,

115 our master Muḥammad, and grant peace, and the Family and the Companions; and remove my pain

116 without ever turning it toward me, and protect me from toil unto the Gardens.

PARTIE 3

Taysirul Hasiru 3

117 And spread over me the blessings of the Ants (sūra an-Naml), without affliction, and gather together what is scattered for me.

118 And spare us contention and turbidity unto the Gardens of eternity, O You Who have power.

119 And bless, O Judge (Al-Ḥakam), and grant peace upon the chosen Prophet, greeted with peace,

120 his Family and his Companions; and grant me, by the sūra al-Qaṣaṣ, what turns fear away

121 toward others than me, and my clinging to glad tidings unto the Gardens of eternity, O Lord of humankind.

122 And free me, by remembrance (of God), from recalling what has already passed, and illumine my thoughts for me.

123 And bless, O Just (Al-ʿAdl), with a blessing with peace, him who effaced all blame from me,

124 our master Muḥammad, the Family and the Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

125 And grant me, by the Spider (sūra al-ʿAnkabūt), all that gladdens me, with a sound permanence.

126 And grant me justice in the outward and the inward, and bestow on me what is pure.

127 And bless, O Subtle (Al-Laṭīf), O All-Aware (Al-Khabīr), him whose reward is great,

128 our master Muḥammad, and grant peace, and the Family and the Companions who dispel the darkness.

129 And spread over me the blessings of the Byzantines (sūra ar-Rūm), a spreading by which I may be possessed of honour,

130 without affliction and without turbidity, O Lord of decree, of creation and of predestination.

131 And for me, by Luqmān, make piety lasting in all things, and spare me delusion.

132 And bless, O Forbearing (Al-Ḥalīm), O Mighty (Al-ʿAẓīm), him to whom veneration has yielded,

133 our master Muḥammad, and grant peace, and the Family and the Companions; and turn darknesses away

134 toward others than me, and illumine all of me, and with safety and clarity be for me.

135 And spread over me the blessings of the Prostration (sūra as-Sajda), O You Who lead His glory to the Glorious.

136 And grant me, by it and by the Confederates (sūra al-Aḥzāb), a worship that rises without (hostile) confederates.

137 And free us from what necessitates forbearance, with the best deeds and the best knowledge,

138 and with the neighbourhood of the people of good, O You Who spared us every bearer of harm.

139 And bless, O Forgiving (Al-Ghafūr), O Appreciative (Ash-Shakūr), him whose pre-eminence is mentioned, 140 our master Muḥammad, and grant peace, and the Family, the Companions and every Muslim.

141 And grant me, by Sabaʾ and by Fāṭir, what puts to shame every good obtained by rain.

142 And spare us fear in the two Abodes, and all that drags to the two disgraces.

143 And bless, O Most High (Al-ʿAlī), O Great (Al-Kabīr), him to whom the All-Aware gave tidings,

144 our master Muḥammad, with peace, and the Family and the Companions; and accept this speech from me.

145 And grant me elevation and greatness, O Everlasting Who have already removed ruin

146 toward others than me; and make safety lasting for me with good pleasure, and make time clear for me.

147 And grant me, by the right of Yā Sīn, the wishes, without tremor, and lead the trustworthy to me.

148 And for me, by the gourd (of Jonah, sūra aṣ-Ṣāffāt 37:146), grant all that I love of righteous deeds that are chosen.

149 And bless, O Guardian (Al-Ḥafīẓ), O Sustainer (Al-Muqīt), him through whom the (prayer) times are brought to life,

150 our master Muḥammad, and grant peace, and the Family and the Companions; and make my pen mighty.

151 By the right of David (sūra Ṣād) and by the right of the Throngs (sūra az-Zumar), make clear and honour, O Generous, my life.

152 And bless, O Reckoner (Al-Ḥasīb), O Majestic (Al-Jalīl), him to whom glorification has yielded,

153 from You, with Your peace — and he is the Chosen — and the Family and the Companions, people of ascent.

154 By (the sūra) Ghāfir adh-Dhanb, by the right of Fuṣṣilat, and by the sanctity of ash-Shūrā, which unveiled the wishes.

155 And bless, O Generous (Al-Karīm), O Watchful (Ar-Raqīb), him through whom the chief was raised,

156 our master Muḥammad, and grant peace, his Family, his Companions and the learned,

157 by the sūra az-Zukhruf; and make the poem (accepted and blessed), O You with Whom is what I love of mighty things.

158 And grant, by the sūra ad-Dukhān, to the Messenger glad tidings that bring him the best request.

159 And bless, O Answerer (Al-Mujīb), and grant peace upon the intercessor of intercessors, the banner,

160 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome,

161 by the sanctity of (the sūra) al-Jāthiya, the venerated, O Subduer to Whom belong loftiness and might.

162 And bless, O All-Embracing (Al-Wāsi‘), O Wise (Al-Ḥakīm), him to whom judgement has yielded,

163 our master Muḥammad, and grant peace, with the Family, the Companions and whoever submitted (to Islām),

164 by the sūra al-Aḥqāf and al-Qitāl, O You Who free from what draws adversaries.

165 And bless, O Loving (Al-Wadūd), O Glorious (Al-Majīd), him to whom glorification has yielded,

166 our master Muḥammad, and grant peace, and the Family and the Companions; and teach my heart,

167 by the sanctity of al-Fatḥ and by the right of al-Ḥujurāt, O You Who free from pain and death-throes.

168 And bless, O Resurrector (Al-Bāʿith), with peace, the bearer of glad tidings, the known intercessor,

169 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome,

170 by the sanctity of the Glorious (sūra Qāf), and make my writing, with You, O Appreciative, the best writing.

171 And bless, O Witness (Ash-Shahīd), with peace, him whom my pens praise,

172 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

PARTIE 4

Taysirul Hasiru 4

173 And lead to the Effacer, by the right of adh-Dhāriyāt, the best glad tidings that endure growing.

174 And bless, O Truth (Al-Ḥaqq), by the right of aṭ-Ṭūr, him who came with the Inscribed (Qur'ān 52:2).

175 our master Muḥammad, and grant peace, and the Family and the Companions; and preserve my pen,

176 my body and all of me from all that You have not approved for me; and keep my family safe.

177 And bless, O Trustee (Al-Wakīl), with peace, him toward whom my pens tend,

178 for the mission and his being above all the creation of the Fashioner, to Whom belong the multitudes,

179 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome,

180 by the sanctity of an-Najm and by the right of al-Qamar, O You Who lead to Yourself the best throngs.

181 And grant me, by the right of Your noble Countenance, through him, with You, glad tidings that do not depart.

182 And bless, O Strong (Al-Qawī), O Firm (Al-Matīn), him through whom the trials have been effaced,

183 without return to my side, forever, our master, he through whom appeared from You

184 a wise Remembrance that You led to us: and it is honoured with us.

185 our intercessor Muḥammad, and grant peace, with the Family and the Companions; and honour my pen.

186 And to the Prophet, by the sūra ar-Raḥmān, convey Your two greetings of peace with safety.

187 And bless, O Patron (Al-Walī), O Praiseworthy (Al-Ḥamīd), him to whom praise has yielded,

188 and that is the most excellent of creation, Muḥammad; and lead to him from my service what is praised,

189 in his Family and his Companions, and grant peace, and increase for him what gladdens him from my pen,

190 by the sanctity of al-Wāqiʿa, the venerated, and by the sanctity of al-Ḥadīd, possessed of might.

191 And bless, O Reckoner (Al-Muḥṣī), with a blessing surpassing every blessing, with a peace that rises,

192 upon the chosen Prophet, whose intercession is accepted, and the Family and the Companions; and raise my service

193 with a raising of acceptance, and efface what has issued from me outside the good pleasure of Him to Whom belongs the decree.

194 And keep my outward and my inward forever from clothing themselves in what is not praised.

195 Āmīn, O Lord, by the sanctity of the Disputation (sūra al-Mujādala) and by the sanctity of the Qur'ān; and spare me disputation.

196 And grant me, of what You have counted, what You chose for me, O You Who are pleased, Who have pleased.

197 And spare me what none but You can count of harm, and make my desire within Your desire (will).

198 Āmīn, O Originator (Al-Mubdi'), O Restorer (Al-Mu'īd), O You through Whom, from Him, to Him we return.

199 O You toward Whom my writing has turned, and my service with You has already been extolled before,

200 bless and grant peace forever upon the trustworthy, our master Muḥammad, he who does not lie,

201 his Family and his Companions; and grant me through him the righteousness of the righteous before me.

202 And make my compositions dearer to Allah than others, O Best King Who is loved.

203 And expand through them the breasts of those who learned, an expansion by which the darknesses leave them.

204 And bless, O Giver of Life (Al-Muḥyī), with a blessing with peace, him who came with the finest speech,

205 our master Muḥammad, the Family and the Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

206 by the sanctity of al-Ḥashr and by the right of al-Mumtaḥana, aṣ-Ṣaff and al-Jumuʿa, always, when (their time) comes.

207 And bless, O Living Who does not die, him through whom the Giver of Death (Al-Mumīt) gave me glad tidings,

208 our master Muḥammad, and grant peace, in the Family, the Companions and every Muslim.

209 And by al-Munāfiqūn and at-Taghābun turn harm toward other than what has been built for us.

210 And spare us what draws hypocrisy, and grant us good pleasure with concord.

211 O Living, O Self-Subsisting, bless forever and grant peace upon him whose grace has appeared,

212 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome,

213 By the sūra aṭ-Ṭalāq and at-Taḥrīm increase the Prophet in the highest honour.

214 By the sūra al-Mulk and the sūra al-Qalam bless with peace the guide, the banner,

215 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome,

216 O You Who spared me the arduous affairs, bless with peace, by the right of al-Ḥāqqa,

217 the Prophet and Messenger Aḥmad, the Family and the Companions; and make my life praiseworthy.

218 O You Who lead me to the best ways out, bless the one possessed of the sūra al-Maʿārij, 219 our master Muḥammad, with peace, in the Family and the Companions; and spare me blame.

220 By the right of Nūḥ and by the right of al-Jinn, bless with peace the Possessor of favour,

221 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome,

222 O One (Al-Wāḥid), O Eternal Refuge (Aṣ-Ṣamad), You are the Finder (Al-Wājid), Powerful (Al-Qādir), All-Powerful (Al-Muqtadir), You are the Glorious (Al-Mājid),

223 bless the Enwrapped (al-Muzzammil), the Cloaked (al-Muddaththir), by the sanctity of al-Muzzammil and al-Muddaththir,

224 and grant peace upon him, in the Family and his Companions, in the present, this and what fulfils (the outcome).

225 And spare us, before it makes (for us), blame, and evil deeds, Lord, and (evil) speech.

226 The blessing of our Lord, the Most High, the Bringer-Forward (Al-Muqaddim), with His peace, upon the one brought forward,

227 our master Muḥammad, the Family and the Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

228 O First (Al-Awwal), O Last (Al-Ākhir), O Delayer (Al-Muʾakhkhir), Your being for me without harm I store up,

229 bless with peace our master Muḥammad, our beloved, our guide,

230 his Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome, O You Who sustain the state.

231 O Manifest (Aẓ-Ẓāhir), O Hidden (Al-Bāṭin), bless forever and grant peace upon him whose grace has appeared,

232 our master Muḥammad, the Family and the Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

PARTIE 5

Taysirul Hasiru 5

233 by the sūra al-Qiyāma, the venerated, and the sūra al-Insān, possessed of might,

234 al-Mursalāt and by the right of an-Nabaʾ and an-Nāziʿāt; and inform my heart.

235 O You Who held back and stayed harm toward others than me, bless with peace, by the sanctity of ʿAbasa,

236 the chosen, purified Prophet, Muḥammad, the best of creation, the purifier.

237 And lead to him, by the sūra at-Takwīr and al-Infiṭār, an increase of illumination,

238 in his Family and his Companions; and free me from innovations, through You and through the reviver of the sunnas.

239 O Kind (Al-Barr), O Accepter of repentance (At-Tawwāb), You are the Governor (Al-Wālī), the Self-Exalted (Al-Mutaʿālī), the One Who sets the states right,

240 bless with peace the best of creation, O You Who through him illumined the hearts of others than him,

241 his Family and his Companions; and lead to him, by the sūra al-Muṭaffifīn, his request.

242 And grant him, by al-Inshiqāq, al-Burūj and the sūra aṭ-Ṭāriq, what surpasses the ascension, 243 before the Resurrection; and guard his Book, O Bestower Who granted me writing.

244 By the sūra al-Aʿlā and by the right of al-Ghāshiya, bless with a blessing that never ceases to grow,

245 with a lasting peace that gives glad tidings, upon the chosen Prophet, the announced,

246 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome,

247 And spare me, O Lord, what You did not approve for me, before it makes (for me), by the preferred Prophet.

248 by the sūra al-Fajr and the sūra al-Balad, ash-Shams and al-Layl, and by the sanctity of the City (Mecca),

249 bless our master Muḥammad, his Family and his Companions, O my Eternal Refuge.

250 O You through Whom the punishments have made toward others than me, unto the Garden of eternity, O Avenger (Al-Muntaqim),

251 bless, grant peace and bless forever the one You named Muḥammad,

252 his Family and his Companions; and by aḍ-Ḍuḥā renew his way through me, making it clear.

253 By ash-Sharḥ, at-Tīn and the sūra al-ʻAlaq bless the opener of what was before closed,

254 our master Muḥammad, and grant peace, and the Family and the Companions; and preserve my pen.

255 O Pardoner (Al-ʿAfuww), O Kind (Ar-Raʾūf), bless forever and grant peace upon him whose precedence has appeared,

256 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome,

257 By the sūra al-Qadr and by the right of al-Bayyina bless the generous one whose loftiness is evident,

258 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome,

259 O Owner of dominion, by the right of az-Zalzala, bless him who led his hospitality to me,

260 without tremor, or wandering, or injustice; and You have already spared me fabricated words.

261 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome,

262 O Lord, Possessor of majesty and honour, bless with peace and with respect

263 the Prophet possessed of distinctions, Aḥmad, the Family and the Companions; and make this striving praiseworthy.

264 By al-ʿĀdiyāt and by the right of al-Qāriʿa bless the one possessed of precedence and swiftness,

265 our master Muḥammad, O Equitable (Al-Muqsiṭ), and the Family and the Companions who practised equity.

266 O Gatherer (Al-Jāmiʿ), O Rich (Al-Ghanī), You are the Enricher (Al-Mughnī): bless with peace him who is free of need 267 through You, with his Family and his noble Companions; and lead to him, with this poem, the best aim.

268 And by at-Takāthur and by the right of al-ʿAṣr bless him through whom You bestowed victory on me,

269 through him, without affliction or turbidity; and grant peace upon him, O You Who make the decree flow,

270 with his Family and his Companions, O Preventer (Al-Māniʿ), O Best of those whom a diligent servant has pleased.

271 O You to Whom belongs the active participle from "harm" (Aḍ-Ḍārr): You have already spared me its harm and peril.

272 bless with peace, by the right of al-Humaza, O You Who spared me it, and the word of backbiting,

273 the Prophet Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome.

274 O Giver of the light that never sets, bless with peace, by the right of al-Fīl,

275 the Prophet and Messenger Aḥmad, the Family and the Companions; and make my life praiseworthy.

276 By the right of what You sent down concerning Quraysh, as a sūra, bless the Qurayshite,

277 our master Muḥammad, and grant peace, and the Family and the Companions; and keep all of me safe

278 from all that grieves or harms, O All-Merciful, O Most Merciful, You are the Kind (Al-Barr).

279 O Light (An-Nūr), O Benefactor (An-Nāfiʿ), You are the Guide (Al-Hādī), O You Who already brought my struggle to its end, 280 bless with peace the best of creation, the Family and the Companions; and illumine all of me.

281 And grant me benefit in all things, with Your guidance, and grant me elevation.

282 O our Lord, by the sūra al-Māʿūn turn the harm of the Accursed toward others than me.

283 O our Lord, grant me, by the right of al-Kawthar, the blessing of life, and multiply my rewards.

284 O our Lord, turn the unbelievers toward others than me, without harm to me, by the right of al-Kāfirūn.

285 O Inheritor (Al-Wārith), O Originator (Al-Badīʿ), You are the Everlasting (Al-Bāqī); Yours are the seven earths, like the layers (of heaven).

286 bless with peace our master Muḥammad, our beloved, our guide,

287 his Family and his Companions; and make the letters of this poem, for good things, the best of vessels.

288 And make through him this poem like all good things, O You Who make provisions abide.

289 By the sūra an-Naṣr and Tabbat (al-Masad) hold back the hearts of the envious and the hands

290 toward a direction other than mine; and by al-Ikhlāṣ bestow on me, toward the Gardens, sincerity.

291 O Rightly-Guiding (Ar-Rashīd), O Patient (Aṣ-Ṣabūr), bless with peace him who uttered the finest speech,

292 our master Muḥammad, the Family and his Companions, in the present and in the final outcome,

293 And spare me, by the right of the sūra al-Falaq and the sūra an-Nās, harm, O You Who created.

294 And write for him — may He bless him with peace — in his Family and his Companions, the Everlasting, the Peace, 295 for every letter of these letters, a glad tiding by which my good may grow.

تَيْسِيرُ الْحَسِيرِ

Taysirul Hasiru

يَااللّٰهُ يَامَنْ لَّاإِلٰهَ غَيْرُهُ ۞ يَامَنْ أَتَانِي بِدُونَ شَرٍّ خَيْرُهُ

« Ô Allah, ô Toi en dehors de Qui il n'y a pas de dieu, ô Toi dont le bien m'est parvenu sans mal, »

« Taysirul Hasiru » est un khassida de Cheikh Ahmadou Bamba Khadimou Rassoul, guide spirituel et fondateur de Touba. Cette édition réunit ses 295 vers, répartis en 5 parties, en arabe vocalisé, avec leur translittération et leur traduction.

ENGLISH

KIRAAM

Bibliothèque des khassidas de Serigne Touba · lecture et PDF gratuits